The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All property in this State, which since the year eighteen hundred and eighty-four has been assessed for purposes of taxation, and upon which the taxes levied have not been paid on account of any alleged illegality or invalidity of such assessment, or which have not been collected because of any error, irregularity, or invalidity in the proceedings to enforce the collection of such taxes, or for any other reason, shall be reassessed for each year since eighteen hundred and eighty-four for which such taxes shall remain unpaid, as aforesaid, by the proper officers or Board authorized and required by law to assess similar property, which reassessment shall be entered upon the assessment roll required by law to be made and entered, specifying in such assessment roll the year for which such reassessment shall have been made. The property affected thereby shall be subject to the payment of all taxes thereon for each year of such reassessment at the rate of the general tax levy for the year in which such reassessment may be made; and all the provisions of law now or hereafter provided in respect to assessment, equalization, levy, and collection of taxes shall apply to all reassessments made, and to the collection of taxes thereon, under the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 2. Such reassessment shall be made in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-three to the person, corporation, or estate, to whom or to which such assessment ought first to have been made.

SEC. 3. The taxes so levied, upon the property so reassessed, shall constitute a lien upon such property until such taxes are fully paid; and the same shall be payable at the place and time, and in the manner provided by law for the payment of taxes on real estate, for the year in which such reassessment is made.

SEC. 4. If any installment of said tax shall not be paid as above required, the same may be collected in the same manner and by the the same remedies, and with the same penalties, as are now or hereafter may be prescribed by law for the collection of delinquent taxes.

SEC. 5. Upon the passage of this Act, all actions now pending to enforce the collection of any taxes alleged to be due upon any past assessment or attempted assessment of any of the properties embraced by the provisions of this Act, shall be suspended until one or more of said installments herein provided for shall become delinquent.

SEC. 6. This Act shall not be applicable to taxes or assessments for local improvements or street purposes.

SEC. 7. All Acts or parts of Acts in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 8. This Act shall take effect immediately.

The following substitute, submitted by the minority of the Committee on Corporations, was read:

An Act in relation to reassessment of property and the equalization of the same in cases where a former assessment is invalid or void, and in relation to levy and collection of taxes on said reassessments.

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Every assessment of property made after the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine which is invalid, or may hereafter be adjudged to be, by reason of any illegality, invalidity, or irregularity declared or existing in the assessment of such property, or in the mode provided for the assessment thereof, shall be remade and the property reassessed and equalized for each year for which such assessment is invalid as aforesaid, and for the year for which the assessment of such property was invalid as aforesaid, and such reassessment and equalization shall be made by the same officers and Boards, at the same time or times, as is now prescribed by law for the assessment and equalization of property, of the same classes or kinds as the property which hereby is required to be reassessed. The assessment and equalized assessment of such property shall be entered on the several assessment rolls or books in the same manner that assessments of such property are required by law to be entered for the year or years during which such reassessment shall be made. And there is hereby levied for State purposes the same rates of taxation for each of such respective years as were heretofore levied upon such property for each of said years for said State purposes.

SEC. 2. All taxes for county, cities and counties, and lesser taxing districts, shall be levied by the proper Board or Boards upon the property mentioned in the first section of this Act, at the same rates at which they were levied upon property for each of said years after the year eighteen hundred and seventy-nine.

SEC. 3. All property authorized to be reassessed by this Act shall be reassessed and equalized by proper officers and Boards at the value and upon the estate and to the person or corporation to whom or to which such property ought for each of such years to have been assessed, under such rules of notice, and at the times and in the modes as are prescribed for the assessment and equalization of like classes of property; and the assessment and equalization thereof, and the levy and collection of taxes thereunder, shall be made by the proper officers at the time, upon like notice and in the manner now or hereafter provided by law for making assessments and equalizing the same, and for the levy and collection of taxes on like classes of property, and if the taxes so levied shall become delinquent, there shall be added thereto and the amount thereof the same percentage as a penalty for such delinquency as is added to other delinquent taxes on like classes of property, and such delinquent taxes and penalties added thereto shall be collected by the proper officers in the manner now or hereafter provided by law for the collection of delinquent taxes and penalties upon like classes of property; the collectors of such taxes to allow as credits thereon all payments heretofore made on the tax as first levied.

SEC. 4. There shall be no limitations as to the time in which actions for the collections of taxes levied under this Act may be commenced, and all the provisions of law now or hereafter provided in respect to assessments, equalization, levy, and collection of taxes shall, where applicable, apply to reassessments, equalization, and reliefs and collections of taxes made under the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 5. This Act shall apply to taxes only, and not to assessments for local improvements or street purposes.

SEC. 6. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Senator Ostrom moved to amend, as follows:

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

Senator Ford, of the committee to investigate and report upon the management and needs of the Reform School for Juvenile Offenders at Whittier, Los Angeles County, presented the following report, and asked that the same be printed in the Journal:

So ordered.

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, February 24, 1893.

MR. PRESIDENT: Your special committee appointed to investigate the conduct, management, and needs of the Reform School for Juvenile Offenders, located at Whittier, county of Los Angeles, have performed the duties assigned them, and beg leave to report as follows:

Your committee arrived at the said school on the afternoon of February 18th, instant, and proceeded at once to inspect the buildings, machinery, equipments, and grounds of said institution. On the evening of the said last named date, your committee began the taking of oral testimony, and continued the same through the whole of the 19th and the forenoon of the 20th, and in the taking of such oral testimony examined the following-named persons:

Hervey Lindley, ex-Trustee; Maj. E. L. Stern, President of the Board of Trustees; F. A. Gibson, Trustee; Father A. Montanarelli, Catholic Priest; Mrs. Anna S. Averill, representing the Congregational Church; Mr. A. E. Pomeroy, Secretary of the late Grand Jury of Los Angeles County, and Superintendent of the Methodist Sunday School of Los Angeles City; Capt. H. Z. Osborn, editor of Los Angeles "Express;" Gen. E. P. Johnson, furniture dealer in Los Angeles, and Brigadier-General of the National Guard of California; Miss DeWolf, Principal of the Girls' Department; Paul Boteler, a stenographer and pupil at the school; Capt. A. F. Mackay, the contractor who erected the school buildings; Dr. Walter Lindley, Superintendent; Mrs. Lindley, Matron of the Boys' Department; Col. H. G. Otis, editor of the Los Angeles "Times."

We have also read and carefully studied the two biennial reports submitted by the Board of Trustees of said institution to the Governor of California, on the twenty-eighth day of November, 1890, and the thirtieth day of June, 1892, respectively, and have found the facts set forth in said biennial reports to fully conform to those established by our investigation. We would specially recommend a careful study of these reports by each member of the Senate.

There were at the time of our examination three hundred and thirty-four boys, ranging from ten to eighteen years of age, and seventy-six girls of similar ages, receiving the care and training of said school, making a total of four hundred and ten pupils.

The boys, being larger in number, are cared for in the main buildings, being those heretofore erected by the State. Our investigation disclosed the fact that there is not sufficient room in these buildings to properly accommodate more than two hundred and fifty boys, and there are, therefore, at present some eighty-four more boys being cared for in these buildings than they can properly accommodate, thus exhibiting a very crowded condition. This, as will be readily seen, when you take into consideration the character of the boys that are sent here for training and education, is necessarily dangerous to the discipline and proper conduct of the school. Our investigation further disclosed the fact that there are a number of boys in the jails of California to the number of at least fifty—waiting admission to this school. The crowded condition of the Boys' Department has necessitated the use of the halls for dining purposes, and dressing-rooms as well, and the dormitories are so crowded that there is not the air space that the health of the children requires, and it is therefore an imperative necessity that additional room should be provided for the Boys' Department. Such additional room should, in our opinion, be provided by the construction of cottages, as recommended by the last biennial report of the Superintendent, and for the reasons in such report given; such cottages to contain fifty pupils each, under the direct supervision of some proper man and wife. We further find that the facilities for teaching the boys trades and occupations are wholly inadequate to the numbers now attending the school, and if the purposes of the school are to be carried out, and the boys taught useful occupations, additional means for so training and teaching them will have to be provided. The Superintendent's report has shown this more fully than we could in the limits of this report, and we are pleased to indorse all that the Superintendent has said in this behalf in his report.

We were much gratified with the high order of discipline maintained at the school. After a searching inquiry we failed to discover any evidence of any serious infraction of the school discipline. The boys are divided into companies of about fifty, each graded according to culpability or innocence, and the military idea or theory is carried to its utmost detail. So far as we could ascertain the boys are contented and cheerful, and interested in their work. The predominant feature of the entire institution is the idea that soon gains possession of each boy that he is attending a military school, which includes the teaching of trades as well as the regular branches of a common school education. The boys are of a necessity regular in their habits and correct in their morals. Their religious training is not neglected, and representatives of all denominations are afforded ample opportunity to teach the children the principles of morality.

A large chapel furnishes ample opportunity and accommodation for religious instruction and proper entertainments.

We deem it our duty, as well as pleasure, to say that the high degree of efficiency attained at this school is in no small degree due to the able and conscientious efforts of the Superintendent and his wife. We have carefully noted the manner in which they are conducting the school, and their treatment of the pupils and the high degree of confidence which they have inspired in the pupils and the great interest they have induced them to take in the work of the school. Dr. Lindley is certainly especially fitted for this character of work, and the State is indeed fortunate in the possession of his services in this behalf. Mrs. Lindley evinces equally as great an interest in the welfare of the pupils as does her husband. She personally supervises their correspondence, which amounts to about five hundred letters per week. We noted particularly the exhibition of respect, and even love, which the pupils display for her. We would feel that we were lacking in our duty did we not say this much for the Superintendent and his wife.

The girls, seventy-six in number, are at present being cared for in a rented building a mile distant from the main buildings, where the boys live. This rented building is wholly unfit for the purposes to which it is being applied. If these girls are to be kept under the management of the Whittier School it will be absolutely necessary that a State building or buildings should be erected for them.

It is our opinion that the cottage plan suggested by the Superintendent in his report should be adopted. Let cottages of sufficient size, and otherwise properly constructed, be built to care for fifty girls each, under the supervision of a competent matron, the girls to be graded upon the basis of an entire separation of the chaste from the unchaste. We find in the Girls' Department the same general plan of training and education as we have described in connection with the Boys' Department. They have their hours of work and hours of study, as have the boys, and the military idea is also observable here. The girls have their work, as do the boys, and as nearly as may be, each girl is given the work that appears to suit her best. They attend to their own rooms, their own wardrobes, do their own cooking, take care of the entire house, and wait on the tables with a regularity and neatness that is really commendable. Here, too, it is at once observable that the idea is being thoroughly instilled into the minds of the girls that they are not confined in a penal institution, but are attending a boarding school. The management at first experienced some difficulty in obtaining the services of a competent and proper Principal for the Girls' Department, but they have now succeeded in securing Miss DeWolf, who has heretofore had experience in similar work in the East. Miss DeWolf has had charge of the Girls' Department for about three months, and it is but due to her to say that she is thoroughly equipped for the duties she is called upon to perform. She appears to take a decided interest in her work, and has an abiding faith in the results that can be accomplished with the girls under her control.

We feel that the length of this report is justified by the transcendental importance of the work accomplished at Whittier. No grander work has ever been undertaken by California at any time. The gathering together of the boys of California who have, owing to a diversity of circumstances, started out in life upon the wrong road, and instilling in their hearts a love of all that is good and pure, training their minds to think aright and their hands to follow useful occupations, is a labor that is not only fraught with good to the moral welfare of our State, but its financial benefits are worthy of our highest consideration. It should not be forgotten that over three fourths of the boys that come to Whittier were born in California, and that only six per cent of the entire number were born in foreign lands. As was said prior to the establishment of this school:

"The State of California has wisely paid millions and millions of dollars for building, equipment, and maintenance of the State University and Normal Schools, where the fortunate youth of our commonwealth are educated; but for the unfortunate, those who through incapacity or death of parents, or through abject poverty and through hereditary criminal tendencies are thrown upon our streets before they have reached years of discretion, California has done absolutely nothing. Millions of dollars are spent annually by the State caring for these unfortunates after they have become adults and entered our penitentiaries and insane asylums; but nothing has been done in this state toward taking these youths who have started on the broad road to ruin, teaching them useful trades, habits of industry, and depriving them of the baleful effects of opium, tobacco, alcohol, and impure associations."

We also desire to say that we examined the financial condition of the institution, and found that the affairs had been prudently and economically administered, and that the appropriations made and the deficiencies incurred had been properly and prudently expended. We particularly inquired into the personal standing of the Trustees, Messrs. Stern, Gibson, and Elliot, and found that they had the reputation of being men of strict integrity and exceptional business capacity.

In view of the above facts, and as the result of our investigation, we would make the following recommendations:

First—We would recommend an appropriation of $121,000 to cover the deficiency incurred for the maintenance of the school to the end of the present fiscal year, to wit: June 30, 1893, this deficiency having been already sanctioned by the State Board of Examiners.

Second—We recommend an appropriation of $240,000 for the maintenance of the school for the forty-fifth and forty-sixth fiscal years, commencing July 1, 1893, and ending June 30, 1895. This recommendation is based upon the estimate which we have carefully examined of $25 per capita per month, for the maintenance of each pupil, this maintenance being estimated as follows, showing the amount expended upon each pupil in detail:

|---|---------|
| Salaries of officers and employes..... | $8 50 |
| Provisions..... | 7 50 |
| Clothing..... | 3 00 |
| Materials used and tools worn out in shops..... | 1 00 |
| Table-linen worn out and tableware broken..... | 50 |
| School books and appliances..... | 50 |
| Fuel, lights, and power..... | 2 00 |
| Incidentals, including medicine and medical attendance..... | 2 00 |
| Total..... | $25 00 |

It should be borne in mind that a regular boarding school furnishes a pupil simply tuition and board for ten months in a year; whereas, the Whittier School furnishes tuition, board, clothing, instruction in trades, military training, and strict surveillance day and night, for twelve months in the year.

Third—Buildings for girls and equipments, $65,000.

Fourth—Additional buildings for Boys' Department, $25,000.

Fifth—Construction of kitchen, bakery, and commissary building, with equipments, $8,000.

Sixth—Construction and equipment of laundry, machine shop, and blacksmith shop, $10,000.

Seventh—Purchase and piping of water supply, $8,000.

Eighth—The following items: Barn, $1,500; cow and hay barn, $1,000; shelter buildings, $2,000; additional electric plant, $2,500; nursery stock, $2,500; additional cows, horses, and implements, $2,000; fees for architect, $3,000; books, periodicals, etc., for the libraries, $2,000.

The above recommendations have been made after careful and conscientious study and examination of the entire situation and the needs of the said institution, and we believe that any reduction of the appropriations above recommended would very materially cripple the efficiency of the institution.

In conclusion, your committee begs leave to suggest that, inasmuch as the above institution has passed beyond the experimental stage and is now a permanent State institution, there should be provided for it a permanent fund, to consist of a fixed percentage of the taxes annually collected for State purposes, thus removing the institution as far as may be from the influence of partisan politics, and rendering it more stable and independent and unembarrassed by legislative uncertainties.

Respectfully submitted.

TIREY L. FORD,
WM. J. BIGGY,
Committee.

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, February 24, 1893.

| Senator Ford, 956 miles..... | $95 60 |

| J. C. Mulligan, stenographer to committee, 956 miles..... | 95 60 |

Senator Maher, of the joint committee on memorial services in memory of the late James G. Blaine, presented the following report of the proceedings of the joint convention, and asked that the same be printed in the Journal.

So ordered.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE ON MEMORIAL SERVICES IN MEMORY OF THE LATE JAMES G. BLAINE.

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, February 23, 1893.

MR. PRESIDENT: The joint committee appointed in accordance with the following resolution:

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring. That a special time be set apart for a memorial address to be delivered in joint session of the Senate and Assembly in honor of the memory, life and services of the Hon. James G. Blaine, and that a committee of six, three to be appointed by the President of the Senate and three by the Speaker of the Assembly, be appointed to select the time of and speaker on such occasion.

Respectfully reports as follows:

In compliance with previous arrangements of the joint committee, memorial services commemorative of the death of James G. Blaine were held in the Assembly Chamber at ten o'clock and thirty minutes A. M. Wednesday, February 22, 1893 (Washington's Birthday), the Senate and Assembly meeting in joint convention.

The Speaker's and Clerks' desks were draped in mourning.

Hon. R. B. Carpenter, President pro tem. of the Senate, presided.

The following programme, deemed by the committee appropriate to the occasion, was rendered:

1. Funeral March (Chopin), by the orchestra. Entrance of Senators, Assemblymen, and State officers.

2. Reading and adoption of memorial resolutions.

The joint committee presented the following resolutions, which were read by Hon. F. G. Finlayson, Chairman of the Joint Committee:

WHEREAS, The people of California have heard with profound regret the announcement of the death of that illustrious American citizen, the Hon. James G. Blaine; therefore, be it Resolved, That the members of the Legislature of this commonwealth, in joint convention assembled, do express their sense of the National loss sustained and their estimate of the private character and public service of the peerless statesman in this tribute to his memory. James G. Blaine was the ideal American statesman. His mental grasp of public questions was unequalled, and his sympathies, like his patriotism, were ever broad and responsive. In thirty-seven years of almost continuous public life, embracing, in its measure, the duties of a legislator in the State of Maine, service in both houses of Congress, and positions in the Cabinet of the United States. His consistent and able support of every leading proposition tending to the advancement of this country to the highest position among the renowned nations of the world, won for him a recognition reserved only for the greatest of men. Diligent study, ample resources of intellect, and above all, an alert sense of patriotism, enabled him to comprehend, long before the day was removed from the eyes of other statesmen, that unrestricted immigration from Asia to this land would inevitably degrade American labor on the Pacific Coast, and with the ready courage of his conviction, he fought in the minority for the industrial supremacy of the Caucasian race. His superb service, rendered in that recent struggle for human civilization, will ever be remembered by a grateful people in California. Voicing the sentiments of the people of California, we express our profound regret over the loss of this illustrious American statesman, and express the hope that his example of fidelity to free institutions will speak to future generations.

To the family of the lamented statesman, we tender sincere sympathy in their bereavement, and as an expression of our feeling, it is directed that a copy of the memorial be transmitted to Mrs. Blaine.

Mr. Dodge moved the adoption of the resolutions by a rising vote.

So ordered.

The President of the Joint Convention thereupon declared the resolutions adopted by unanimous vote.

3. "Not Dead, but Sleepeth" (White; bass solo, by W. H. Kinross; male chorus of eighteen members from the Sacramento Choral Society, accompanied by the orchestra.

4. Invocation. Rabbi J. Leonard Levy, of the Congregation B'nai Israel, Sacramento, was introduced and delivered the invocation, as follows:

Almighty God and Father! Thou art the first, and Thou art the last, and beside Thee there is no God. Wherever we turn our eyes, or bid our thoughts take flight, there art Thou, here in Thy majesty, there in Thy power, everywhere in Thy love. Whether we gaze adoringly, on the heavens, fretted with golden fire, or on the tiny blade of grass, seeking the sun's rays and the refreshing breezes; whether we stand amazed by the vast ocean, when its angry waves are lashed into a fury by the tempest, or by the purling brook, on whose bosom plays the dainty ripple; whether we listen overawed to the far-resounding peal of the thunder, or to the gentle rustling of the leaves when the southern zephyr "makes the trees clap their hands;" whether we contemplate the forest giant, adorned with a crown of foliage, or the tiny petal of the rose, begemmed with the glistening dewdrop; or whether we feel Thy presence in public and private joys and sorrows, we are always impressed that Thou alone art God, that Thou art forever the same, that Thy years end not, that with Thee, majesty, power, and love are eternal.

Contrasting these, Thy infinite qualities, with the transient character of man's days on earth, we are led to ask: "Lord, what is man that Thou art mindful of him, the Son of Man that Thou takest heed of him?" On the side of his physical nature he is like the beasts that perish; but on the side of his spiritual nature, since he partakes of Thy divine essence, he is little less than the angel, endowed with aspirations and longings, yearnings, and desires, that indicate that he is not wholly of this earth.

Lord God! we invoke Thy help that these cravings be rightly directed. We pray that more and more our natures be awakened to the force of the reasonable hope of that life, when, divested of our earthly bodies, we shall awaken in Thy presence, perhaps to see the deeds done in our days of nature in their right light, perhaps to analyze the motives with which we performed them.

We recognize that there is also an immortality on earth for Thy children, O God. We feel that it largely depends on man himself whether his name be inscribed on shifting sand or on imperishable marble; that it depends on us alone, and upon the right use made of our faculties and the means at our disposal, whether, when we lie in the silent grave, when the tombstone has crumbled into dust as our bodies, and the grass thereabouts has withered, and the banks of flowers faded—whether our names be forgotten on the tongues of men, whether, like balloons with which children play, death makes a puncture in us and, falling into nothingness, we be entirely gone forever—or whether we shall have gotten for ourselves a name which death cannot touch, which age cannot impair, which clouds cannot conceal, nor storms blight.

Help us, O God, to strive for this immortality on earth, even as we desire eternal life with Thee. Send us Thy light and Thy truth, and may they restrain our selfish passions and inspire us with generous sentiments. Teach us to feel that the elixir of eternal life is a specific composed of benevolence, sincerity, and unselfishness, to be used not only towards those of our own creed, race, and position, but towards all men, for we are all Thy children.

We thank Thee for this hope within our breasts, and for the possibility of its fulfillment. We thank Thee for the many examples which Thou hast furnished us in the form of illustrious men and women, by contemplating and imitating whom we feel that Thou wilt suffer our hopes to be realized.

It was because in our judgment our departed brother, in honor of whose memory we are here assembled to-day, was graced with noble qualities that we admired him—that we praised him living and treasure his memory dead. Yet we know, O God, that Thou dost expect more, if this demonstration of affection is to be more than a sterile tribute.

We know that Thou wouldst have us become inspired with his devotion, and we therefore beseech Thee to aid us to love what he loved, to struggle and fight for what he defended, to seek and strive for this great nation, to set America above our chief joy. As he was in all things actuated by a pure love of our country, as he was inspired with a deep and earnest longing to see her traditions honored, her institutions supported, and her people united, so, O God, may we be moved by like loyalty, integrity, and patriotism. Into Thy safe-keeping we commit his spirit, in the full and certain hope that his righteousness will bring an exceeding great reward.

Thou who healest the broken-hearted and bindest up their wounds, send Thy heavenly comfort to those who mourn. Be a father to the orphan, and a protector to the widow from the garden of whose existence the fairest tree has been plucked. Fill the hearts of all mourners with love and reverence of Thee to serve Thee with a perfect heart, so that when it shall please Thee to call them unto Thee their end shall be peace.

We ask Thy blessing on all assembled here to-day. They are all Thy children, and for all we ask Thy fatherly protection and benediction.

And bless our own land. May the hopes of all her founders and servants be realized. May her citizens recognize that National prosperity, without moral nobility, is as a gem in the forehead of a skull; that righteousness alone exalts a nation. May liberty continue to be our presiding genius; not liberty to do wrong unpunished, but liberty to listen to the voice of conscience, liberty to choose Thee, O God, for our master; liberty to excel in truth, purity, honor, integrity, virtue, duty. May America ever be the land of the brave and the home of the free. May this great fabric never fall. Cleanse all the administrations of National affairs. May those in office be upright, hating deceit. May legislators unselfishly and patriotically serve their country, and not their own ends. Take under Thy protection the President of the United States, and those dear to him, and all who administer the public affairs of this vast commonwealth, the Governor, and officers of this State and city, that through them order may be preserved, and peace, right, and liberty be fostered. Lord! hasten the day of blessed promise, when men shall truly regard each other as brothers, when hand shall meet hand in friendship, and heart speak to heart in love; when swords shall be beaten into plowshares, and spears into pruning-hooks; when there shall be learned no more war; when shadows of ignorance, and superstition, and hatred shall have fled, and the bright light of knowledge, religion, and love shall illuminate men's minds, when all shall acknowledge Thee as the One Common God and Father, Thou who art One and Thy Name, the One and Eternal God! Amen.

6. Memorial poem.

Ruth E. Newland, M.D., was introduced, and delivered the memorial poem, as follows:

I have been by his side as he touched each round,
 In climbing the Ladder of Fame;
 I have kissed his brow when I heard the sound
 Of each groan of anguish and shame.
 When the roar of the cannon, of shot and shell,
 Told of conflict, of war, and of strife,
 The heart of the statesman in his bosom did swell;
 Then his country had need that his life
 Should be spent in the work of political toil.
 With tongue, pen, and soul in the van,
 He ne'er failed in duty, he ne'er did embroil,
 But was ever the peace-making man.
 I have stood by his side when each feather in wing
 Seemed to quiver with anguish and sorrow;
 I have turned aside malice, and have taken the sting,
 And have whispered, "Just wait till the morrow."
 Of closing his life, to see him walk in
 At the entrance when the gates open wide,
 When those glorious forms with no taint of sin
 Walk in glory close by his side.
 That heavenly throng of angels so bright
 Will each stand with close-folded wings—
 Will be mute with surprise in the realms of light,
 And the seraphs will all cease to sing,
 For a soul has come from the "Sorrowful Star,"
 Has come home to the bosom of God.
 They have heard of that life midst its tumult and war,
 And the straight path of duty he trod;
 Then we'll give him a welcome, we will open the gate,
 Each harp will be ready and sweet—
 For the one to precede him is the Angel of Fate,
 With laurels to lay at his feet.
 But one of them all to his touch will be given,
 It seems with earth's memories rife;
 It has come to his hand midst the glories of heaven,
 It's the "Last Round of the Ladder of Life."

8. Memorial address.

Hon. G. G. Goucher, Senator, of Fresno, was introduced, and delivered the memorial address, as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT AND FELLOW-COUNTRYMEN: We are gathered here to lay upon the grave of James G. Blaine a fresh garland of glory, plucked from the warm hearts of seventy million Americans.

In tendering this tribute to the illustrious dead, we have honored ourselves in selecting a day that commemorates him who "was first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen." The stricken procession of unsheltered heads, bowed forms, and tear-stained faces of other Americans in Pennsylvania, in Maine, in the District of Columbia, has not passed unobserved by the great-hearted host who populate the Golden State. Divested of partisan jealousy, we have assembled at the bier of a great statesman, and from this solemn presence and consecrated spot we send across the rivers, the mountains, and the valleys to the confines of the roaring Atlantic assurances of our sympathy and announcement of our sadness.

Over our own hearts the sable, hovering pinions of sorrow have been spread, and their black shadows have eclipsed the California sunshine in our breasts.

We discover in the conclusion of such a sacred message to our Eastern brethren the silent summons to return our minds to this occasion and this place. Surprising, yet pleasing, is the discovery that when our minds concentrate again upon this occasion and its cause, the desolating touch of sadness and sorrow begins to flee under the pursuit of a strange enjoyment. This feeling cannot be analyzed except through the reinforcement which comparison may afford.

None can stand on the seashore and watch the distant incoming waves, their dancing crests sparkling in the jewels that seem kisses stamped there by the tender and softened light of the stars, without feeling happiness in the thought that such beauty will come rolling and smiling shoreward forever.

None can gaze upon the hillside through the sweetened air of springtime and see the manifold bloom that a great God has unfolded, like a gorgeous carpet, without the entrancing reflection that such vision is to be repeated through countless centuries.

None can look upward to the sublime heavens and feast his soul upon the distant diamonds, that seem like angels' eyes, without rejoicing in the knowledge that this shining coronet belongs to all time and all generations.

Inspired by these feelings that captivate the heart and command the intellect, it is appropriate to seek their relatives in history.

Whenever peril, from either within or without, has appeared against our country, the emergency has always sent out in freedom's vanguard the man or the men for the hour

We have had our Warren, and our Washington; we have had our Lawrence, and our Sumner; we have had our Patrick Henry, and our Harry Lee; we have had our Winfield Scott, and our Farragut; we have had our Grant, our Sherman, and our Sheridan; and also our Webster, our Clay, and our Calhoun.

Yet, to no heart pulsating on our soil has ever come inconsolable sorrow that these men lived, or that in the fullness of their years and their honors they bowed to heaven's decree and died.

In her great and matchless names we may see the supreme safety of the Stars and Stripes, and the unbroken ramparts that stand eternal guard around the Union of the States.

We may then appropriately feel that, in tendering our tribute to the great dead, we are but lifting their names to an immortal station in the cloudless sky of our Nation's love.

We may upon such occasion take selfish payment for our own action in the reward for which reason furnishes security that the uncounted generations yet hidden behind the future's mystic curtains, will ever turn their patriot eyes upon the name we are humbly striving to distinguish to-day.

No Nation can sustain itself without some source of patriotism which inspires the young people of the land.

When the true American statesman, in the evening of his impaired strength, turns his failing eyes toward the temple of American liberty, and feels the stronger beating of his dying heart, his patriotic hope will always gather about it the raiment which falls as gently as a snowflake and as welcome as a sunbeam from the shining names of his country's fallen and buried guides.

Without the name and record of Washington how could we teach our boys the inspiring lesson which has sent our flag like the rainbow of promise before all liberty-loving people on earth?

Without Captain Lawrence how could we explain to our growing sons the story that no flag can fall which is supported by salutation coming through the frosts of death as they seek to seal and lock the lips?

Without Marion how could we hope that young American eyes would open like full moons as their memory lifts the great story of his sacrifices into a monument forever dedicated to the cause of freedom?

Without Webster and Clay, Calhoun and Corwin, Lincoln and Sumner, Benton and Douglas, where will we go to arouse the sleeping eloquence of the romping and smiling children, now our thoughtless heirs, yet soon to be our dignified successors?

And to-day let us find enjoyment in the knowledge that James Gillespie Blaine has risen above death to the sublime station from whence his brilliant qualities and his untiring devotion to the American Union will always send a blessing down to electrify the young American and to persuade him to noble action.

To the constellation of great Americans we must now consent to send its newest, if not, indeed, its best and brightest jewel. There let that name live, shedding the stimulating rays of its own deserving upon the growing millions which are to lead this nation upward and onward to undying fame.

Some time in tamer hours it may be proper to recall the fact that Mr. Blaine was born in West Brownsville, Washington County, Pennsylvania, on January 31, 1830. Certainly it is not inappropriate to say that the Irish people, whose blood and brawn have been brave and free on every field that has heard the voice of freedom for a thousand years, furnished Mr. Blaine his honored parentage. But when he was born his country was the world, and his relatives were the decent inhabitants of all civilized countries.

Mr. Blaine's education was like his superb ambition. It was broad, expansive, and completely American.

What satisfied so many minds was but the budding of hope in his. His fine literary inclination led him to journalism, and journalism led him to his long-loved State of Maine. His remarkable talent for successful discussion upon great National problems enticed him into the noisy and active battle of politics, and there he soon became the leading knight, whose banner always measured the course of march, and whose clarion voice always sounded reviving music to the sinking hopes of his followers.

Naturally he was sent to Congress, and there he found a wider field for his unrivaled powers, and, as easily as he had conquered in smaller stations, he won his triumphs in the new and greater.

The marked features of his Congressional career are in the brilliant and dashing method of winning victory from apparently hopeless conditions. He was the triumphant Alexander of political campaigns, the unequalled Bonaparte of debate; yet he was ever the hero of mercy to a fallen cause or a beaten antagonist.

Some there are who embrace the very excess of celebration in the hour of triumph, but Blaine was too tender of the feelings of those whom his victories had prostrated to ever smile in their presence at his own successes.

Thus it was an open way for him to stand a welcome visitor at the hearts of his adversaries. Beyond the confines of our beloved country his name became a symbol of fear to those who meant us harm. In foreign countries he excited mingled surprise and admiration in the ranks of those trained and veteran diplomats whose opinions are worthy of quotation. To Gladstone and Salisbury at London, to Bismarck and Caprivi at Berlin, to Gortchakoff at St. Petersburg, and to Andrássy at Vienna, he introduced the fresh and lustrous vigor of diplomacy, which came with a glittering shield and polished helmet from the West.

All Americans have been proud to concede that Blaine was one of the most ardent lovers of America that any generation produced. But some have doubted whether his great heart was endowed with that sentiment and poesy which go out like the bubbling waters of a crystal spring to our famous fellow-countrymen. An insight to his heart in this regard is afforded by the beautiful closing words which Blaine uttered in memory of his friend, the lamented Garfield.

I quote them now because they uncover the tender heart that lay within the breast of James G. Blaine:

"Masterful in his mortal weakness, he became the center of a nation's love, enshrined in the prayers of a world. But all the love and all the sympathy could not share with him his suffering. He trod the wine press alone. With unfaltering front he faced death. With unfailing tenderness he took leave of life. Above the demoniac hiss of the assassin's bullet he heard the voice of God. With simple resignation he bowed to the divine decree.

"As the end drew near, his early craving for the sea returned. The stately mansion of power had been to him the wearisome hospital of pain, and he begged to be taken from his prison walls, from its oppressive, stilling air, from its homelessness and its hopelessness. Gently, silently, the love of a great people bore the pale sufferer to the longed-for healing of the sea—to live or to die, as God should will, within sight of its heaving billows, within sound of its manifold voices. With wan, fevered face tenderly lifted to the cooling breeze, he looked out wistfully upon the ocean's changing wonders; on its fair sails, whitening in the morning light; on its restless waves, rolling shoreward, to break and die beneath the noonday sun; on the red clouds of evening, arching low to the horizon; on the serene and shining pathway of the stars. Let us think that his dying eyes read a mystic meaning which only the rapt and parting soul may know. Let us believe that in the silence of the receding world he heard the great waves breaking on a farther shore, and felt already upon his wasted brow the breath of the eternal morning."

In conclusion, let us remember that Blaine's great soul, like Garfield's, has floated above into the eternal rewards that fall upon good men's heads, in that union which is around the throne of God.

Like Garfield, he has left the pains of earth for a glorious destiny. Like the name of Garfield, his name has ascended to the zenith of American fame, and there it will shine forever, inspiring the flower of American manhood to hasten to the front on that broad and splendid highway which leads to the best permanent progress for the American Union.

May God cause His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you. May God cause His face to shine upon you and give you peace. Amen!

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

Senator Mitchell presented the following petition, with the request that it be printed in the Journal.

So ordered.

To the honorable members of the Senate of the State of California:

GENTLEMEN: We, the undersigned, employés engaged in the manufacture of cordage, do hereby pray that you will not pass the bill to establish a cordage factory at Folsom State Prison.

It will be the means of closing down the place where we are at present working, thereby throwing us out of employment, and as the labor market is already overcrowded, it will be difficult to obtain another situation, thereby working a great hardship on us.

We consider it would be of more benefit to the people to encourage honest labor instead of discouraging it by placing us in competition with convict labor, thereby tending to make more convicts.

Memorializing the Attorney-General and the Secretary of the Interior of the United States of America to locate one of the United States prisons, provided for by an Act of Congress March 3, 1891, within the State of California.

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States did enact the following law:

“Chapter 529—An Act for the erection of United States prisons, and for the imprisonment of United States prisoners, and for other purposes.

“Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Attorney-General and Secretary of the Interior be and are hereby authorized and directed to purchase three sites, two of which shall be located as follows: One north and the other south of the thirty-ninth degree of north latitude, and east of the Rocky Mountains; the third site to be located west of the Rocky Mountains, and the same to be located geographically as to be most easy of access to the different portions of the country, and cause to be erected thereon suitable buildings for the confinement of all persons convicted of any crime whose term of imprisonment is one year or more at hard labor by any Court of the United States in any State, Territory, or district under the jurisdiction of the Department of Justice of the United States, and the plans, specifications, and estimates of such sites and buildings shall be previously made and approved according to law, and shall not exceed the sum of five hundred thousand dollars each.

“SEC. 2. That the sum of one hundred thousand dollars is further appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Attorney-General, in the fitting of workshops for the employment of the prisoners; provided, however, that the convicts be employed exclusively in the manufacture of such supplies for the Government as can be manufactured without the use of machinery, and the prisoners shall not be worked outside the prison inclosure.

"SEC. 3. That the Attorney-General and the Secretary of the Interior be and are hereby authorized to select the State, District, or Territory in which to locate and erect the prisons; provided, that the consent of the authorities of such State, District, or Territory be first obtained.

"SEC. 4. That the control and management of said prisons be vested in the Attorney-General, who shall have power to appoint a Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, Warden, Keeper, and all other officers necessary for the safe-keeping, care, protection, and discipline of such United States prisoners. He shall also have authority to promulgate such rules for the government of the officials of said prisons and prisoners as he may deem proper and necessary.

"SEC. 5. That the transportation of all United States prisoners convicted of crime against the laws of the United States in any State, District, or Territory, and sentenced to terms of imprisonment in a penitentiary, and their delivery to the Superintendent, Warden, or Keeper of such United States prisons, shall be by the Marshal of the District or Territory where such conviction may occur, after the erection and completion of said prisons. That the actual expenses of such Marshal, including transportation and subsistence, hire, transportation, and subsistence of guards, and the transportation and subsistence of the convict or convicts, be paid, on the approval of the Attorney-General, out of the Judiciary Fund.

"SEC. 6. That every prisoner when discharged from the jail and prison shall be furnished with transportation to the place of his residence within the United States at the time of his commitment under sentence of the Court, and if the term of his imprisonment shall have been for one year or more, he shall also be furnished with suitable clothing, the cost not to exceed twelve dollars, and five dollars in money.

"SEC. 7. That this Act shall not apply to minors, who, in the judgment of the Judges presiding over United States Courts, should be committed to reformatory institutions; and provided, that nothing in this Act shall be construed as prohibiting the Courts of the United States from sentencing to or confining prisoners, either civil or military, in the United States Military Prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

"SEC. 8. That the said Attorney-General, in formulating rules and regulations for the conduct of said prisons, is hereby authorized to establish rules for commutation for good behavior of said convicts, but not for a longer time than two months for the first year's imprisonment, and two months for each succeeding year.

"SEC. 9. That the Attorney-General shall be authorized to designate to which of said prisons persons convicted in such States or Territories shall be carried for confinement; provided, that in the construction of the prison buildings provided for in this Act there shall be such arrangement of cells and yard space as that prisoners under twenty years of age shall not be in any way associated with prisoners above that age, and the management of the class under twenty years of age shall be as far as possible reformatory." (Approved March 3, 1891.)

AND WHEREAS, The Attorney-General and Secretary of the Interior have not as yet located a site west of the Rocky Mountains, as provided for in the law above quoted; and whereas, the State of California is geographically so located to be most easy of access to the country and district west of the Rocky Mountains; and whereas, a site at or near Folsom, Sacramento County, California, with an abundance of granite and other building material, and water for power and other purposes, can be obtained cheaply, and with climatic and other conditions especially favorable, and peculiarly adapted to the maintenance of a prison of the character contemplated in the said Act; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly concurring, That the consent of the State of California be given to the Government of the United States for the establishment of a United States prison within the limits of this State; and be it Assembly Joint Resolution No. 7—Relative to the election of United States Senators.

The roll having been called on the adoption of this resolution on a previous day, the same showing no quorum present and voting, a new roll call was ordered, whereupon the resolution was adopted by the following vote:

AYES—Messrs. Arms, Berry, Broderick, Burke, Dunn, Earl, Everett, Fay, Ford, Goucher, Harp, Hart, Hoyt, McGowan, Maher, Martin, Mathews, Mitchell, Orr, Ostrom, Seymour, Shippee, Simpson, Streeter, Voorheis, Whitehurst, and Wilson—27.

NOES—Messrs. Carpenter, McAllister, Ragsdale, and Seawell—4.

EXPLANATION.

Senator Seawell gave the following explanation of his vote, and, by request, it was ordered printed in the Journal:

"I vote 'No' on Assembly Joint Resolution No. 7, on the ground that at the last election the question was submitted to the people and they decided by an overwhelming majority that they were in favor of the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people. The Governor transmitted the vote so had to the representatives of this State in Congress, and to the executive department of every State in the Union. Any expression of this body against the wish of the people, as so expressed, would offend our sense of a proper discharge of representative functions. Our assent to and concurrence in the will of the people can add nothing to the force of this positive expression. I am in favor of the spirit of the resolution, but not in the method of such legislative expression."

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 9—Relative to foreign immigration to the United States.

MINORITY REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

The following minority report of the Committee on Constitutional Amendments was submitted:

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, February 27, 1893.

MR. PRESIDENT: The undersigned, members of your committee to which was referred Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 8, hereby respectfully dissent from the majority report made thereon, and beg leave to render a minority report herein, as follows:

We call attention to the fact that the evidence adduced before the committee refers chiefly, if not exclusively, to one portion only of the proposed amendment, viz.: That relating to the adoption of the schedule of freights and fares, designated therein as the "California Distance Tariff."

The testimony shows, in our judgment, it would be unwise and detrimental to the public welfare to make this tariff a part of the Constitution. While the maximum rates of fare and freight therein set forth would doubtless be fair and reasonable to many of the roads operated within this State—notably those of the Southern Pacific system—nevertheless, there are a number of shorter lines of vital importance to the people they serve which would be greatly injured, if not absolutely ruined, if compelled to adopt such rates. A careful review and consideration of the evidence leads us to believe that it would be impossible to frame a rigid uniform tariff for all, or any class of roads within this State which would deal fairly with these properties, or which would not be injurious to the public interests. There is such disparity in the cost of construction, the operating and fixed expenses, and the earnings of the various roads within this State that any tariff which would be just and reasonable for one road and just and fair to the public would be so injurious as to bankrupt another less favorably situated. To this extent we agree with the majority report of your committee.

But as to that part of the amendment which provides for the repeal of sections twenty-two and twenty-three of article twelve of the Constitution, we think the testimony, in so far as it touches that point at all, confirms the general conviction already formed by the public, that those sections should be repealed and the Railroad Commission abolished. Twelve years of experience with this constitutional commission has demonstrated the fact that it is worse than useless. It has utterly failed to perform the functions for which it was created. Unjust discriminations in charges for transportation continue to be made between places and persons for the same classes of freight by the railroad companies, with no attempt on the part of the Commission to correct such evils. Unjust and exorbitant rates continue to be charged for the transportation of the products of this State upon the well-known principle adopted by the railroad companies of exacting all the traffic will bear, without a protest from the Commission. The thirteenth annual report of this Board, the report on the investigation of said Commissioners, discloses the fact that they have not only failed, neglected, and refused to perform their duties, but that they are incompetent and have not tried to qualify themselves for the position. They seem to have made no effort to correct the abuses, for the correction of which their office was created. They have only added to the burdens already borne by the public, at least to the extent of their salary and the expense incurred in making the discovery of their inefficiency.

All this, the majority report virtually admits, but with fine irony it lays the blame upon the people in selecting unfit men for Commissioners. To this we cannot agree. We believe that their selection has been secured by the same power which seeks to retain them in office, a power which, we regret to say, seems abundantly able to thwart the will of the people whenever it is its interest to do so. We protest against further expenditure on the part of the State to retain a Commission in the interest of this power; we cannot believe it is any "easier for the people to select three fit men for the Commission than one hundred and twenty fit men for the Legislature." That is a reflection which we are not prepared to admit.

We therefore recommend the repeal of sections twenty-two and twenty-three of article twelve of the Constitution, and that the regulation of freights and fares be relegated to the Legislature.

BART BURKE.
J. H. SEAWELL.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee on memorial services in commemoration of the death of Hon. James G. Blaine, respectfully report that under and in pursuance of the action of the Senate, and in conjunction with the Assembly committee, certain debts, as evidenced by the bills hereunto attached, were contracted, viz.:

|---|----------|
| Carriage hire..... | $5 00 |
| Printing..... | 16 25 |
| Music..... | 160 00 |
| Decorating..... | 25 00 |
| Cleaning Assembly Chamber, etc..... | 15 00 |
| Postage, etc..... | 10 00 |
| Chairs—removing, handling, and expressing same..... | 25 00 |
| Total..... | $256 25 |

The item for chairs, removal, handling, and expressing same was originally for fifty dollars, but the committee considered that the sum of twenty-five dollars was a fair and considerate sum therefor, hence the same was reduced as herein reported, and ask that the action of your committee therein be indorsed. Your committee also recommend the adoption of the following resolution, viz.:

Resolved, That the Controller is hereby directed to draw his warrant in favor of Senator Maher, upon the appropriation for the contingent expenses of the Senate, for the sum of one hundred and twenty-eight dollars and twelve and one half cents ($128 12½), said sum being for one half of the amount as contracted by your committee.

MAHER, Chairman.

Referred to Committee on Attachés, Contingent Expenses, and Mileage.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 7—Relative to investigating the Railroad Commissioners.

The roll was called, and the resolution lost by the following vote:

AYES—Messrs. Arms, Bailey, Berry, Biggy, Burke, Dunn, Earl, Fay, Gesford, Langford, McAllister, McGowan, Martin, Mathews, Mitchell, Seawell, Whitehurst, and Wilson—18.

NOES—Messrs. Broderick, Campbell, Carpenter, Denison, Everett, Flint, Goucher, Harp, Hart, Hoyt, Maher, Mahoney, Orr, Ostrom, Ragsdale, Scymour, Shippee, Simpson, Streeter, Voorheis, and Williams—21.

EXPLANATION.

Senator Goucher, who voted “no,” in explanation of his vote, called for the following minority report of special committee appointed to investigate the Railroad Commissioners, said report having been filed by him. He stated that his views were the same now, and asked that it be reprinted in the Journal.

So ordered.

MINORITY REPORT.

I have not signed either of the reports that have been presented by the special committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the Railroad Commission. In the first place, I positively assert that I do not know anything in regard to the details necessary to prepare a proper schedule of freights by which the railroads of the State shall be governed, and I do not believe a single one of my colleagues on the committee occupy any different position in that regard. To arrive at a just conclusion in regard to a matter of that kind requires the study of a lifetime, and the man to properly handle the intricacies of the situation must have received his education in railroad matters, so to speak, from the ground up. It requires great intelligence, years of practice, a thorough association with the multifarious demands which an enterprise of that nature entails, and no man, unless he possesses the proper qualifications to enable him to deal justly with the people in connection with those duties which are imposed upon a Railroad Commission, should undertake to judge as between the people and those Commissioners.

The report of the majority of my colleagues is to the effect that one of the Commissioners has been adjudged to be derelict in duty and incompetent, while the other two are condemned for incompetency. Incompetency is a question as to the degree of one's ability to perform any duty. Incompetency may arise from inability to perform, not from any laches on the part of the Commissioner, but from the difficulty of meeting surrounding circumstances; and right here I desire to say one of the Commissioners has been adjudged derelict in his duty and incompetent to perform it properly, and yet this same Commissioner has been in office six years—for four years he performed the duties of a Railroad Commissioner, representing the people of a very large district of the State, who, if he has been guilty of marked dereliction of duty and given evidence of gross incompetency, never would have reelected him to the same position, which they did two years ago, and by a most decided majority. They had four years of time in which to experience the justice or injustice of his action as Railroad Commissioner, and that they were entirely satisfied that he was just and upright in the performance of his duty, his reelection is in evidence.

Besides that incompetency which springs from lack of ability, there is another kind of incompetency, which may arise from restraints or improper influences resting upon the public officer; but no evidence has been adduced tending to show anything corrupt among the Commissioners. There may be a belief, widespread, to the effect that such influences are upon them, or upon some of them, but neither this committee nor the Senate can be justified in pronouncing such incompetency on mere suspicions or beliefs not founded upon testimony, and hence I dismiss from further consideration this branch of the investigation. As to whether the Commissioners exercise their full powers under the Constitution, is probably a matter of discussion, but I do not believe the Commissioners have exhausted their powers, yet the same complaint doubtless applies to nearly all public officers.

In dealing with a matter of such vast importance to the people of the State, my judgment is, that experts on the proposition advanced should be the ones to make inquiry as to the details leading up to a proper conclusion. I cannot consent to condemn them and deprive them of their official position upon what has been adduced by the special committee appointed by the Senate to investigate the Railroad Commissioners. Without a more explicit and decided presentation of facts, I must dissent, and emphatically so, from the report presented by a majority of my colleagues on the committee, and therefore, I recommend that the resolutions be not adopted, and that the question be relegated to the people at the next election.

GEO. G. GOUCHER,
Of Special Committee.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION.

Senator Ostrom gave notice that on to-morrow he would move a reconsideration of the vote whereby Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 7—Relative to investigating the Railroad Commissioners—was this day refused adoption by the required two-thirds vote of all the members elected to the Senate.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

The following report of the special committee appointed to visit Golden Gate Park was submitted:

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, February 27, 1893.

MR. PRESIDENT: Your special committee appointed to visit the Golden Gate Park, and confer with the Park Commissioners relative to improvements in course of progress, contemplated improvements, and proposed amendments to the law now governing said park, beg leave to report that we visited the park in company with said Commissioners, Messrs. Stow and Hammond, on February 26, 1893.

It is needless to say that the management of the park, both from an artistic and financial view, is all that the most progressive and intelligent citizen could fairly demand. The most scrupulous care is invariably taken by the Commissioners, that the public money intrusted to them by the law is expended to accomplish results pleasing and satisfactory to even the most exacting taxpayer.

In proof of these conclusions we have only to cite the facts that the books of the Commissioners have on many occasions been subjected to a most scrutinizing research, with only conclusions complimentary to the Commissioners revealed, and that upon the investigation of the expenditures of the public money it was found that the work done required less money than similar work when done for private purposes.

We gladly avail ourselves of this opportunity to testify to the disinterested regard, prompt and energetic attention, and painstaking care with which Messrs. Hammond, Stow, and Austin have discharged the duties of their office, and we commend them most highly for the zeal they have displayed in the work of their office.

It may be truly said that under the present management many new and attractive features and permanent improvements have been added. The park has become now, under the policy of the present capable Commissioners, a beauty spot, where toiling labor can rest in the struggle of life to view the beautiful scenes of nature, where the overburdened humanity of our great city can breathe pure air, enjoy the songs of birds, revel captives to the sweet strains of music, and where, free from labor's annoyance, can be obtained the healthful and ennobling influences of a life in close communion with nature in her most entrancing forms.

Senate Bill No. 572, introduced by Senator Maher, and Assembly Bill No. 727, introduced by Assemblyman Kennedy, are designated to amend the present law so as to allow needed changes in the management and government of the park. It is first proposed to add the word "musicians" to the present law, so as to allow the payment of a claim for music furnished. It must not be implied from this demand for a change in the law that it is the intention of the Commissioners to pay for all the services rendered by musicians. On the contrary, the public pay but a pittance of the money now expended for music. Nearly the whole sum for such service is paid by a few of the street railway companies, under a contract most advantageous to the public.

It is also proposed to empower the Commissioners to enter into leases, with the term thereof not to exceed ten years. The reasons for such a change are obvious. Under the proposed law leases more to the advantage of public interest can be made. It is contemplated to further amend the law so that additional safeguards can be made.

The object of section four of the bills referred to is to establish a minimum and maximum rate of a levy of "not less than six nor more than ten cents upon each one hundred dollars assessed valuation of taxable property." This is a wise provision, and is desired to enable the Board of Supervisors to give the needed funds for the improvement of the park.

We heartily indorse the proposed changes, and trust that the Legislature will aid the present Commissioners in their most beneficial work by the enactment of the bills referred to.

As Golden Gate Park is situated near the largest city in the State, as the people of the whole State take a most decided interest in it, and many visitors from all parts of our State enjoy the benefits, as its growth and development have made it an institution grand enough to be claimed by the whole State, we respectfully suggest that the State should make a liberal and generous appropriation for the park.

MAHER, Chairman.
MCGOWAN.
WILLIAMS.
MCALLISTER.
MITCHELL.

On motion of Senator Maher, the report of the special committee to visit Golden Gate Park was adopted.

The principle of local choice is imbedded in our customs. It is just that people be free to choose good and not compelled to espouse evil. Sutter and Lake Counties and fifty towns refuse license altogether, and we urge their right to do so, and we desire that that right be continued.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

On behalf of the joint special committee, Senator Everett presented the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT: Your special committee which, in connection with a similar committee from the Assembly, were appointed and directed to investigate certain charges made relating to the construction of some of the buildings at the Home for the Care and Training of the Feeble-Minded, located at Glen Ellen, in Sonoma County, beg leave to submit the following report:

Your committee visited the premises at Glen Ellen, and proceeded at once to inspect and thoroughly examine the buildings in question; that thereafter, at regularly appointed meetings, and in pursuance to the issuance of subpoenas, witnesses whom, in the judgment of your committee were material to aid in determining the charges, appeared and gave testimony, which testimony accompanies this report, and among whom were the following: George W. Gibbs, Trustee; F. W. Lougee, Trustee; and A. P. Overton, Trustee, and Chairman of the Building Committee, together with being a practical builder, and all of whom are men of sterling integrity and business capacity.

In addition to the foregoing witnesses, we examined Victor Hoffmann, Jr., the complaining witness, though laboring under some disadvantage in doing so, inasmuch as he refused to answer some of the questions propounded, and which were, in the judgment of your committee, relevant, that we might the better reach the bottom of the charges, and in this connection we are constrained to say, and we do hereby disapprove of said last-named witness' manner and general conduct before said committee, the same being discourteous and disrespectful.

Your committee finds as follows:

First—That the charges made to the Controller of State by said Victor Hoffmann, Jr., were not founded in fact, and are not borne out by the testimony, but on the contrary, in the opinion of your committee, is the result of animus.

Second—That the testimony of all the witnesses goes to show that the building is constructed in accordance with the specifications, with only slight changes, and which were made with and by the authority of the Board of Trustees, said changes being of no advantage to the contractor, nor detriment to the State, and which changes, under the circumstances, are allowed by law.

Third—We have inspected the buildings, and find that the State may well congratulate itself upon having a building as cheaply and as well constructed as any of like character in the State, either public or private.

Fourth—Answering the charges set forth by Victor Hoffmann, Jr., to wit: That the specifications were forged with the view to serve the purpose of the contractor, beg to say: your committee, together with the Controller, compared the alleged forged specifications with the original, which was filed with the Controller, and find the charge without foundation, the two being identical and exact copies, and no changes or erasures appearing.

Fifth—Your committee having duly and carefully considered the charges set forth in said complaint, and the testimony taken in connection therewith, conclude that there is not a scintilla of evidence to warrant any of the said charges, the testimony to the contrary being conclusive, and we therefore freely and fully exonerate the contractor from any and all charges set forth.

We submit herewith a copy of the charges, together with the report of the expert sent to inspect the premises at Glen Ellen by the Controller; also, a copy of the transcript of the testimony taken before the committee.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

Senator Mahoney presented the following petition, and asked that it be read and printed in the Journal.

So ordered.

To the honorable Senate and Assembly of the State of California:

GENTLEMEN: Owing to the recent change in the law which abolished the House of Correction, and which provided that the prisoners therein should be confined in the county jail, there is now, and for the future we may expect to have daily, over four hundred prisoners in the county jail serving terms of sentence.

For the proper and safe control of such a large number of prisoners, it is necessary that they should work—perform labor of some kind. Last year there were over sixty-six thousand days' labor performed by the prisoners confined in the House of Correction. As an incentive to faithfully perform such labor, and give a prompt, willing, and cheerful obedience to the rules and regulations of the prison, the experience of the past has shown that credits for good behavior, by deducting five days each month for exceptionally good conduct, is the most potent factor.

We, the undersigned, would therefore most earnestly urge your honorable body to immediately pass a law empowering Boards of Supervisors, in their discretion, to give such credits for exceptionally good conduct of prisoners, and we, your petitioners, will ever pray.

L. R. Ellert, Mayor; William S. Barnes, District Attorney; James Denman, Supervisor Twelfth Ward; Sands W. Forman, Supervisor Fifth Ward; James Ryan, Supervisor Seventh Ward; Robert Day, Supervisor Eighth Ward; Patrick F. Dundon, Supervisor Ninth Ward; Wm. Hinton, Supervisor Tenth Ward; J. G. James, Supervisor Eleventh

Ward; Christian Reis, Supervisor Sixth Ward; Daniel Rodgers, Supervisor Second Ward; P. J. Kennedy, Supervisor Fourth Ward; Wm. Montgomery, Supervisor Third Ward; M. Goodwin, Supervisor First Ward; A. B. Maguire, Under Sheriff.

Referred to Committee on State Prisons and Prison Buildings.

Senator Ostrom presented the following protest from West Butte, Sutter County, California, and asked that it be printed in the Journal.

So ordered.

PROTESTS.

To the Senate and Assembly of California:

We, the undersigned, earnestly protest against the Uniform License Bill now introduced in the Legislature, and most earnestly entreat you, as our representatives, to use every possible means to defeat the measure.

The principle of local choice is imbedded in our customs. It is just that people be free to choose good and not compelled to espouse evil. Sutter and Lake Counties and fifty towns refuse license altogether, and we urge their right to do so, and we desire that that right be continued.

Signed by W. W. Wilbur and thirty-one others.

Senator Shippee presented the following protest, and asked that it be printed in the Journal.

So ordered.

We, the undersigned, earnestly protest against the Uniform License Bill now introduced in the Legislature, and most earnestly entreat you, as our representatives, to use every possible means to defeat the measure.

EARL, Chairman.

ON FINANCE.

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, March 1, 1893.

MR. PRESIDENT: Deeming it proper at this time to present to the Senate a statement of the amount of appropriations already passed and now pending, which have been favorably reported, to show the condition of the finances in relation to the 50-cent limit of taxation, therefore your Finance Committee respectfully submit that Senate and Assembly Bills now in the executive office, approved or awaiting action, carry appropriations to the amount of $569,791 33. The sum of $432,987 of this amount is contained in Senate Bills.

In addition to the above, Senate Bills carrying appropriations to the amount of $1,710,130, exclusive of allowances for redemption of and interest on bonds, have either passed the Senate or hold places on the file with recommendation that they do pass.

The estimates submitted by the Controller for the support of the State Government for the forty-fifth and forty-sixth fiscal years, amount to $9,775,448. This includes $500,000 for orphans and half-orphans; $510,000 for aged persons in indigent circumstances; $60,000 for inmates of Veterans' Home; and $1,114,558 for common schools, but does not include $300,000 for coyote scalps.

The Controller's estimates for the support of the State Government will surely be exceeded, as usual, but the exact amount of the excess cannot be ascertained before the General Appropriation Bill reaches the Senate. It will be necessary to provide in this bill for the maintenance of reform schools and asylums which the Controller did not include in his estimates. To cover this expense and meet other obligations which the Controller did not designate, may render necessary an addition of $350,000 to the estimates.

The law directing the levy of 1 cent for the University leaves 49 cents to be levied under the 50-cent pledge. Assuming that the assessment roll be the same in 1893 and 1894 as in 1892, to wit: $1,275,816,228, the levy of 49 cents, less the margin for delinquency in the collection of taxes, will raise $11,877,849.

Against this amount stands:

|--|------------------------|
| The Controller's estimates | $9,775,448 00 |
| Excess anticipated..... | 350,000 00 |
| Coyote scalps | 300,000 00 |
| Interest and redemption of bonds..... | 188,000 00 |
| Appropriations passed | 569,791 33 |
| Bills recommended in Senate "do pass"..... | 1,710,130 00 |
| Total | $12,893,369 33 |
| Amount that the 50-cent tax will produce | 11,877,849 00 |
| Excess | $1,015,520 33 |

If all the bills pending are passed, it will be necessary to cut down the appropriations contained in measures which have already passed the Senate and gone to the Assembly,

VOORHEIS, Chairman.

On motion of Senator Voorheis, the above report was ordered printed in the Journal.

ON ATTACHÉS, CONTINGENT EXPENSES, AND MILEAGE.

After making a thorough investigation and consulting with the Sergeant-at-Arms, we find that Mr. Robinson is not an attaché of the Senate, and therefore the claim is not a just or meritorious one—have had the same under consideration, and respectfully report the same back, and recommend that it do not pass.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE BILL No. 13.

An Act to create a State Board of Funeral Directors, to prescribe its powers and duties, to regulate the practice of undertaking and funeral direction, in cities and towns, and cities and counties having a population of five thousand inhabitants or over, and to more effectually protect the people against contagious diseases.

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A State Board of Funeral Directors, to consist of the State Board of Health, is hereby created, with the powers, functions, and duties hereinafter prescribed.

SEC. 2. Every firm, corporation, or person, who, at the time of the passage and approval of this Act, is engaged, in any city or town, or city and county having a population of five thousand inhabitants or over, in the business or practice of undertaking or funeral directing, or of caring for, preparing for burial, or disposing of the dead bodies of human beings, shall, within six months from the approval of this Act by the Governor, cause the name, residence, and place of business of such firm, corporation, or person to be registered with the Secretary of said Board, who shall keep a book for that purpose, to be known as and marked "Register of Funeral Directors," which book shall be open to public inspection, under reasonable regulations; and all firms, corporations, and persons so registered shall be known and designated, for all the purposes of this Act, as "Funeral Directors," and shall be licensed by said Board to practice and carry on business as such.

SEC. 3. No firm, corporation, or person not registered as and within the time prescribed in section three of this Act, shall engage in or carry on, in any city, or town, or city and county, having a population of five thousand inhabitants or over, the business or practice of undertaking, or funeral directing, or caring for, preparing for burial, or disposing of the dead bodies of human beings, until such firm, corporation, or person shall have been duly examined and licensed, as prescribed in section five of this Act.

If it appear from such examination that the applicant possesses a reasonably sufficient knowledge of the arts aforesaid, it shall be the duty of said Board to register such applicant, and upon the payment of the fees hereinafter provided for, issue a license, to be signed by the President and Secretary of said Board, authorizing him or her to practice as an undertaker or funeral director in this State. If any person, a member of any firm or any employé of any corporation, shall take and successfully pass the examination prescribed by this section, with the purpose and object of procuring a license upon behalf of such firm or corporation, then such firm or corporation shall be registered, and the license be issued by said Board to said firm or corporation; and it shall be lawful for said firm or corporation to carry on said business so long as said person through whom it may have taken such examination shall continue to be such member or employé; provided, nevertheless, that such member or employé shall at all times be actively engaged in carrying on the business of said firm or corporation. Otherwise it shall not be lawful for any firm or corporation to carry on said business.

All firms, corporations, and persons receiving licenses from said Board shall have the same registered with the County Clerk of the county in which such firm, corporation, or person is doing business, and with the Board of Health of the city or town in which such business is located, if there be a Board of Health in such town or city, in addition to keeping the same displayed in his or her office.

Sec. 6. Every firm, corporation, or person who shall register with such Board, as hereinafter provided, shall pay therefor to said Board a registration fee of two dollars; and all firms, corporations, and persons who shall be examined by said Board, as hereinafter provided, shall pay an examination and registration fee of three dollars; and out of the fund so paid to said Board as fees, as aforesaid, the members of said Board shall each receive, as compensation for his services, the sum of five dollars for each day's attendance upon the meetings of the Board; and in addition thereto all necessary expenses incurred in attending said meetings. Each claim therefor to be verified by his affidavit.

Sec. 7. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offense.

Sec. 8. No license granted or issued under the provisions of this Act shall be in any manner assignable or transferable, nor shall it authorize any person other than the person, firm, or corporation therein named, to carry on the business of undertaking or funeral directing. Every such license shall specify, by name, the person, firm, or corporation to whom or which it shall be issued, and shall designate the particular place at which the business shall be carried on.

Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of every funeral director to thoroughly disinfect the body of a deceased person whose death has resulted from any contagious or infectious disease, and the apartment in which said death occurred, without cost, charges, or compensation, within four hours after notification of death, and report the same to the Health Office, if there be such in the city, city and county, town, or township, without delay.

Sec. 10. All fines recovered under this Act shall be paid into the treasury of the aforesaid Board, to aid in defraying its expenses.

Sec. 11. No member of said Board shall be directly or indirectly interested in any business of undertaking or funeral directing, nor a member of a firm or corporation dealing in goods, wares, or merchandise used by undertakers or funeral directors, nor shall any member of said Board engage in said business of funeral director or undertaking, and a violation of this section shall make the appointment of the person so violating the same absolutely null and void.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following messages from the Governor were read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, {
SACRAMENTO, March 3, 1893.

To the Senate of the State of California:

I herewith return to your honorable body, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 49, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the erection of a monument at Donner Lake, Nevada County, California, to the memory of the Donner party."

I have been urged to sign this bill for the reason that the appropriation asked for is so small. I cannot, however, overlook the fact that in all probability other bills making appropriations for similar purposes will be before me. I recall among the probabilities an additional appropriation of fifteen thousand dollars to restore Sutter's Fort in this county, ten thousand dollars for the preservation, protection, and improvement of Colton Hall in Monterey County, and five thousand dollars for the erection of a monument in Sonoma County in memory of General Vallejo. In addition, twelve hundred dollars will no doubt be appropriated for the payment of the salary of the keeper of the Marshall Monument. I am informed by competent authority that the number of visitors from without the county of El Dorado that paid the monument a visit during the past year did not perhaps exceed six hundred. It will thus be seen that the State pays out to the keeper, annually, a sum equivalent to one dollar for each of these visitors.

I appreciate the patriotic and reverential feeling which prompts your honorable body to desire to perpetuate the memories of the gallant men and women of the early history of this State, and to preserve the visible evidences of the active life of its pioneers. As Sutter's Fort is partially restored, there seems to be merit in its completion; and as our necessities are so pressing, and the demands so great, I think that one such expenditure at the present time will be considered as sufficient by the people. The monument to the Donner party would strike me much more forcibly were it not for the fact that one of the most beautiful lakes in the world, and one of the most beautiful spots in California, already bears that historical name; and piles of stone on its banks could in no way aid in perpetuating the memory of that party.

H. H. MARKHAM, Governor.

MOTION.

On motion of Senator Ford, the above message of the Governor was made a special order for consideration to-morrow, immediately after the reading of the Journal.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Section 2. The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice, six Associate Justices, and five Commissioners of Appeals. The Court may sit in departments and in bank, and shall always be open for the transaction of business. There shall be two departments, denominated, respectively, Department One and Department Two. The Chief Justice shall assign three of the Associate Justices to each department, and such assignment may be changed by him from time to time. The Associate Justices shall be competent to sit in either department, and may interchange with each other by agreement among themselves, or as ordered by the Chief Justice. Each of the departments shall have the power to hear and determine causes and all questions arising therein, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained in relation to the Court in bank. The presence of three Justices shall be necessary to transact any business in either of the departments, except such as may be done at chambers, and the concurrence of three Justices shall be necessary to pronounce a judgment. The Chief Justice shall apportion the business to the departments, and may, in his discretion, order any cause pending before the Court to be heard and decided by the Court in bank. The order may be made before or after judgment pronounced by a department; but where a cause has been allotted to one of the departments, and a judgment pronounced thereon, the order must be made within thirty days after such judgment, and concurred in by two Associate Justices, and if so made it shall have the effect to vacate and set aside the judgment. Any four Justices may, either before or after judgment by a department, order a case to be heard in bank. If the order be not made within the time above limited the judgment shall be final. No judgment by a department shall become final until the expiration of the period of thirty days aforesaid, unless approved by the Chief Justice, in writing, with the concurrence of two Associate Justices.

The Chief Justice may convene the Court in bank at any time, and shall be the Presiding Justice of the Court when so convened. The concurrence of four Justices present at the argument shall be necessary to pronounce a judgment in bank; but if four Justices, so present, do not concur in a judgment, then all the Justices qualified to sit in the cause shall hear the argument; but to render a judgment the concurrence of the four Judges shall be necessary. In the determination of causes, all decisions of the Court in bank or in departments shall be given in writing, and the grounds of the decision shall be stated. The Chief Justice may sit in either department, and shall preside, when so sitting, but the Justices assigned to each department shall select one of their number as Presiding Justice. In case of the absence of the Chief Justice from the place at which the Court is held, or his inability to act, the Associate Justices shall select one of their own number to perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chief Justice during such absence or inability to act. The Commissioners of Appeals shall constitute a department, to be called Commissioners' Department of the Supreme Court. They shall be appointed by the Court, and shall hold office for the term of six years, subject to removal by the Legislature in like manner as Judges may be removed. All vacancies in the Commission shall be filled by the Court. They shall receive the same salary as the Justices of the Supreme Court. The Commissioners' Department shall have jurisdiction and power to hear and determine such appeals and other matters pending in the Supreme Court as may, from time to time, be referred to them by the Court. Such reference may be made by general orders designating certain classes of appeals which shall be submitted to the Commissioners, or by special reference, and such orders may be changed from time to time. The Commissioners shall have the same power and jurisdiction over matters referred to them which the Supreme Court has in like cases. Writs of habeas corpus may be made returnable before the Commissioners by the Supreme Court, by the Chief Justice, or any Justice thereof. The concurrence of three Commissioners shall be necessary to render a judgment or make an order. The Commissioners shall not be deemed a part of the Supreme Court for any other purpose than the disposition of the business referred to the Commissioners' Department thereof. The Clerk of the Supreme Court shall be Clerk of the Commissioners' Department.

The roll was called, and Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 18 adopted by the following vote:

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE BILL No. 599.

An Act providing for primary elections in this State.

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The committee or body authorized by the rules or customs of a political party to call primary elections of or for said party within any county, city and county, city, or town, shall, upon the filing with the President or Secretary of such committee a written petition signed by at least fifty electors, members of such party, cause the Secretary of such committee to give notice (in ample time to carry into effect the provisions of this Act), by publication, in one or more newspapers of general circulation in such county, city and county, city, or town, or by posters posted in conspicuous places therein. Said publication or posting shall give notice to all members of such party that those who desire the nomination of such party for the various offices to be filled at the forthcoming election, including candidates for the County Central Committee or delegates to conventions, shall present their names to the Secretary, together with the necessary fee, as fixed by said committee, not later than a certain day to be fixed by said committee, designating the office for which said person desires the nomination, or for the position of committeeman or delegate. After the expiration of the day so fixed, the Secretary shall cause to be printed a ballot, of uniform size, kind, and quality, containing the names of the various candidates arranged alphabetically, under the designation of the various offices for which they are respectively candidates, indicating therein the number of candidates to be voted for opposite the title of each office mentioned. All tickets shall be numbered consecutively, and the number shall correspond with the number on the stub, which shall be attached to said ballot. All ballots shall be bound in stub books of such number as may be directed, suitable for the district for which it is to be used. The committee may make such further provisions relating to said ballots as may be deemed advisable; providing always, that each ballot shall contain the number of the ticket, and a place for the elector voting the same to write his name in. The name of the elector shall be written on the ticket by the elector himself, and shall be his signature, and any person who shall willfully sign a name of any elector other than his own on any such ticket shall be guilty of forgery, and on conviction thereof shall be subject to the penalty provided therefor; and the ticket shall be so arranged and folded that it will display the name of the person voting the same, and the number of the ticket, and not its contents, and so that portion of the ticket containing name and number may be removed from the ticket without defacing the ticket.

SEC. 2. The Secretary shall then cause to be mailed, postpaid, not later than a certain day, to be fixed by said committee, to each member of such party whose name appears on the list of such party, and also on the last printed Great Register, and none others, one of these tickets, and shall write on the stub of such ticket, which shall be by him retained, the name of the person to whom said ticket has been mailed or presented personally. Any member of the party to whom a ticket has not been mailed or given may apply in person for, and receive, personally and not otherwise, his ticket from the Secretary, or he may apply through the mail therefor, when the same must be sent to him through the mail. The envelope inclosing said ticket shall be addressed to the person at the Post Office address as indicated in such Great Register, or to the address as changed under the provisions of section twelve hereof. Ample time shall be given, after mailing the ballot by the Secretary, to enable the elector to receive, mark, and remail the same to the Secretary or Assistant Secretary, as herein provided.

SEC. 3. In any city, or county, or city and county, or town, where, in the judgment of the County Committee, the number of electors are too numerous to be included in one district for the convenient canvassing of such ballots when returned, the said committee shall divide said city, city and county, or county into different districts, and to that end may adopt Assembly or Senatorial districts, or adopt other subdivisions, as they deem advisable. Within each of such districts shall be appointed an Assistant Secretary, and a room or place therein shall be designated as the place where all ballots for such district shall be received and canvassed; and all envelopes inclosing ballots sent from the Secretary shall contain, in addition to the ballot, a postpaid envelope, properly addressed to the Secretary or the Assistant Secretary of the district where such person so addressed resides, in which envelope the elector is to inclose his ballot after the same has been marked. All envelopes used in returning ballots shall be made of such color and material, and so addressed, that they may be plainly distinguished from all other letters in order that the United States postal authorities may be able to comply with all directions relating thereto; and the words "Ballot Envelope" shall be written or printed on such envelope.

SEC. 4. On each ballot shall be plainly printed a notice, giving the latest date (which date shall be fixed by the Central Committee) at which any ballot can be deposited in the United States mail, and the date shall be fixed so that each elector shall have a reasonable time, after the receipt of his ballot, in which to mark and mail it to the Secretary. And it shall be the duty of the Secretary to see that all members of the party whose names appear on the party list, and on the last printed Great Register, receive tickets personally or through the mail within the time fixed by said committee. Every ballot shall have a space to the right of every name placed thereon, in which to make a cross (X), which shall indicate that the person writing the same, in ink or with a pencil, votes for the person whose name is opposite to said cross (X) or mark so made. In case of loss or destruction of such ticket, the elector may apply to the Secretary for a new ticket, and the Secretary shall cancel the number on the stub of the ticket so lost or destroyed, and place over the number so erased the number of the new ballot. The Secretary must require an affidavit of the facts of the loss or destruction of such ballot before issuing the new one. Any false representations made to obtain a new ballot shall be a felony.

SEC. 5. The Central Committee shall fix the time when the ballots shall be removed from the Post Office or delivered by the postal authorities, and shall fix the place to which the ballots shall be taken to be opened and canvassed. The call for the primary election must contain the time and place, as aforesaid.

SEC. 6. No room or place shall be designated as the place for the reception and canvassing of such ballot unless the same is of such capacity that a reasonable number of persons may be accommodated therein (in such a way that the ballot-box shall be in their open view), and each candidate whose name appears on said ballots shall be entitled to at least one representative bystander in every room in which ballots are being received and canvassed, to the exclusion of all persons, excepting the Secretary and Inspectors, two of whom shall be appointed by the committee to act, without pay; provided, however, that a two-thirds majority of all the local candidates of the county may designate the Inspectors, who shall have charge over and supervision in receiving and canvassing said ballots, in conjunction with the Secretary or Assistant Secretary, during the time ballots are being received and canvassed, and shall, together with the Secretary or Assistant Secretary, constitute the Primary Election Board.

SEC. 7. In all places where there exists a free United States postal delivery system, said Secretary shall direct the postal authorities when to deliver all letters containing ballots, and inclosed in envelopes marked "Ballot Envelope," and the time so fixed shall be on the day fixed for canvassing ballots, and immediately before the hour for opening and canvassing the same. The Secretary shall make the necessary arrangements with the United States postal authorities for the retention in the Post Office of such letters until the time fixed for their delivery; provided, however, that in any case the postal authorities are unable to comply with the provisions of this section, then the provisions of section eight of this Act shall be followed.

SEC. 8. In sparsely settled districts, or where there is no postal delivery, or when the postal authorities are unable to carry out the provisions in section seven of this Act, the Central Committee must provide a box at the Post Office, which box must be locked and sealed in such manner that the envelopes containing ballots may be placed therein, but cannot be removed therefrom without breaking the seal, and direct that all letters containing ballots, as aforesaid, shall be placed therein, and retained until the time fixed for opening and canvassing said ballots, when the box containing said ballots may be received by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary from the Post Office, in the presence of the bystanders and candidates, or representatives of candidates, and taken immediately to the place fixed for opening and canvassing the said ballots. If the postal authorities refuse to permit a box into which these marked envelopes have been deposited by the postal authorities as they are received at the Post Office to be removed from the Post Office, then the Secretary shall provide another box into which he shall direct the postal authorities to place all such letters. And it shall be a felony to willfully remove any of said ballots from the Post Office at any time before the time fixed for their removal.

SEC. 9. After the reception of the box containing such ballots at the place fixed to canvass the same, the Election Board shall cause the ballot-box to be opened in public, and in the presence of the bystanders. The letters containing the ballots shall then be taken out and counted, and shall thereafter be opened, but not the ballot therein contained, and the Secretary shall check off the names on the Great Register, as they are read from the ballot, and mark them "voted" as they are opened; provided, the signature of the ballot agrees with the name on the stub from which the ticket was taken; if it does not, the ballot shall be rejected. The name and number shall thereupon be removed from the ballot, the ballot being so arranged that this can be done, and the ballot shall then be replaced in the ballot-box. After the ballots are all returned to the ballot-box, the names and numbers having been removed therefrom, the Election Board must then proceed to take the ballots out of the ballot-box one at a time, and to open and canvass the ballots publicly, one by one, in the presence of the bystanders, and announce the result of the same, openly and aloud, keeping a tally list thereof.

SEC. 10. The ballots, as soon as all the names marked thereon as voted for are read, and a record thereof made, must be strung on a string by one of the Inspectors, and must not thereafter be examined by any person (they may be examined by the Central Committee, however, in case of contest or recount); but, as soon as all are counted, must be carefully sealed in a strong envelope, and directed to the Secretary of the committee, at the office of the committee, and delivered by the Board to the Secretary, with the tally list, showing fully the result of such canvass, who shall preserve the same. After the election for which said primary election was held, the ballots may be destroyed.

SEC. 11. No person shall be furnished a ticket or be allowed to vote whose name does not appear on the last printed Great Register.

SEC. 12. Any elector who has changed his Post Office address or residence since the Great Register was printed, may apply in person or by letter to the Secretary of his party, and have the address and residence changed to accord with such change, at any time before the day for mailing the ballots to the electors, but not afterwards.

SEC. 13. To enable the Secretary to properly classify the electors, with reference to the party to which they may belong, the committeeman from each ward or precinct, together with such members of the party as may be designated by the Central Committee, shall make out a list of all electors residing in his or their ward or precinct, belonging to their party. The names of such electors thus classified shall be placed on said list, giving the Great Register number and residence of each person. All persons whose names appear on such enrollment or list shall be considered a member of such party, and entitled to tickets and all notices emanating from the Secretary as herein provided for. To assist the Secretary in making such lists, all electors are hereby directed to notify the Secretary of the party to which he may belong. Any elector whose name is not on said list, and who failed to so notify the Secretary before the expiration of the time for sending ballots to electors, shall not complain that no ballot was sent to him; and any elector, knowingly and willfully causing his name to be put on the list of more than one political party, shall be guilty of a felony. Every elector may challenge the name of any person on said list, by making affidavit that, according to his best information and belief, the person challenged belongs to a political party different from that on the list of which his name appears. Upon filing said affidavit with the Secretary, the Secretary shall give notice to said elector thus challenged, that he must, within ten days from the date of the service on him of said notice, file an affidavit that he does belong to the party on whose list his name appears, and that his name does not appear on the list of any other party. If, within ten days after the service of said notice, said affidavit is not filed, his name will be erased from the said list.

SEC. 14. Any elector who shall vote under the provisions of this Act more than one ticket, or shall forward to the Secretary of more than one political party a ballot, or shall falsely represent himself to be any person different than himself to enable him to vote, or shall attempt to do so at any primary election, shall be guilty of a felony, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years, and shall thereafter be disfranchised and disqualified from holding any office under the laws of this State.

SEC. 15. The Secretary of any political party shall, on demand, furnish to the Secretary of any other political party a true copy of the list of all electors belonging to the party which he represents, as they appear on the list of said party, and if it should appear that the name of any elector appears on more than one list as belonging to more than one party, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of each party on whose list such name appears to erase the same, and to forthwith notify such elector that his name has been removed from the list and placed as doubtful; and, to enable him to be placed on any list, he shall be required to make affidavit, clearly showing the party to which he does belong, and his name shall not be placed on any list unless such affidavit is so furnished. The Secretary or Assistant Secretary of any party who shall willfully refuse to place on said list any name when directed so to do by the provisions of this Act, or who shall erase, remove, or cancel any name, or who shall fraudulently place any name on said list not entitled to be placed thereon, or shall in any manner fraudulently doctor up or change said list, or who shall willfully refuse to furnish any ballot to any one entitled thereto, shall be guilty of a felony, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the State Prison not less than one nor more than five years. The Secretary or any Assistant Secretary may be removed and a new one appointed at any time by the Central Committee.

SEC. 16. Every elector shall have the privilege of having his name erased from the list of any party at any time he may desire, and of having it placed on the list of any other party; and the Secretary of the party on whose list such elector's name appears, shall, on demand of such elector, furnish him with a certificate that his name has been canceled on said list; provided, however, the party on whose list he may desire to have his name placed may require him to subscribe and swear to such test as may be provided by the Central Committee of the party on whose list he may desire to place his name.

SEC. 17. It shall be a felony to counterfeit or fraudulently publish, print, circulate, or use any ballot or envelopes, as provided herein.

SEC. 18. The Central Committeemen of any political party, elected as herein provided, shall be called together by the Chairman of the committee under which the primary election was held, immediately after the canvassing of the vote. When so assembled the committee shall be and constitute a party convention, with all the powers and duties appertaining to conventions, and also all rights, powers, and privileges, as provided by the laws of this State. Said convention shall certify as its candidates for office those persons elected under the primary law hereby established, and shall be and constitute a convention for all the purposes mentioned in and required by the provisions of section one thousand one hundred and eighty-seven of the Political Code of this State.

SEC. 19. Any public question may be submitted to the party voters upon said ballots, or a primary election may be called exclusively for the submission of questions of public or party interest at any time, according to the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 20. The President, Secretary, and Assistant Secretaries of any political party, and all Inspectors while acting as such, shall be and they are hereby authorized to administer oaths in any and all cases where, by the provisions of this Act, an oath may be administered or is required.

SEC. 21. Any person found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this Act, in any Court of competent jurisdiction, shall, in addition to the penalty provided therefor, be removed from any office which he may then hold, and shall thereafter be disfranchised and forever debarred from holding any office of honor or profit under the laws of this State.

Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 599 adopted.

Bill read second time, ordered to print and engrossment, and on file for third reading.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 24.

Joint resolution relative to the free coinage of silver.

WHEREAS, We recognize constantly the indisputable fact that upon the continued development and working of the silver mines of California and other Pacific Coast States the prosperity and progress of those States largely depend, and that in the depreciation of the value of that metal, by refusing it a proper place in the coinage system of the United States, a vital blow is being struck at all the interests of the Pacific States; and whereas, it is also recognized as a fact that the opposition to the silver product emanates from a class who, for the advancement of their own selfish ends, seek not only to destroy one of the great industries of this section of the country, but also to embarrass and oppress the people of other parts of the nation; and whereas, it is a demand that we cannot fail to regard that the paramount interests of the laborers of the United States require the free and unlimited coinage of American silver; and whereas, it is known that the attempt now being made to stop the further purchase of silver and to repeal the laws authorizing the same is solely in behalf of the gold bugs of Wall Street, and is opposed to the true interests of the great majority of the people, and is an effort to aid the rich and wealthy banking corporations at the expense of the general mass of the people; and whereas, we fully believe that the firm and positive determination of the Government of the United States to restore silver to its former and proper place would at once result in the accomplishment of the purpose, and that the governments of other countries will be obliged to pursue the same course whenever it is known that our Government insists upon the free and unlimited coinage of silver, and in the event that such a result should not follow, we still have entire confidence in the power and ability of this nation to carry, unaided, the restoration of silver to its proper place alongside of gold; therefore,

Resolved, That our Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States be and they are hereby instructed to oppose at all stages each and every attempt to repeal the law commonly known as the "Sherman Act" of eighteen hundred and ninety, providing for the purchase of silver; and

Resolved, further, That our Senators and Representatives be and they are also instructed to advocate and vote for any and all measures providing for the free and unlimited coinage of American silver by the United States Government.

NOES—Messrs. Bailey, Berry, Broderick, Burke, Campbell, Carpenter, Denison, Everett, Flint, Ford, Goucher, Harp, Hart, Maher, Mahoney, Ostrom, Seymour, Streeter, Voorheis, and Williams—20.

FINAL PASSAGE OF BILL.

Senate Substitute for Assembly Bill No. 10—An Act in relation to reassessment of property, the equalization of the same, and the collection of taxes thereon, in cases where a former assessment, made since 1882, is illegal or invalid, or where the proceedings for the collection of such taxes have been ineffectual by reason of error, irregularity, or invalidity, and such taxes have not been paid.

Was then read a third time, and finally passed by the following vote:

AYES—Messrs. Bailey, Berry, Broderick, Campbell, Carpenter, Denison, Earl, Everett, Flint, Ford, Goucher, Harp, Hart, Hoyt, Maher, Mahoney, Martin, Orr, Ragsdale, Seymour, Shippee, Simpson, Streeter, Voorheis, and Williams—25.

NOES—Messrs. Arms, Biggy, Burke, Dunn, Gesford, McAllister, McGowan, Mitchell, Ostrom, Seawell, Whitehurst, and Wilson—12.

Title read and approved.

EXPLANATIONS.

Senator Earl gave the following explanation of his vote:

MR. PRESIDENT: I wish to explain my vote: I have tendered amendments to this bill which would require the reassessments to be made at the rate of the tax levy of each particular year as to which reassessment is made. Now, sir, I have failed in my attempt; I believe the people demand a reassessment bill pass this Legislature. This bill reassesses since 1882. It contains no waiver as to previous years. The next Legislature may pass an Act to reassess for any previous year. Now, sir, I am satisfied the bill before the Senate is the only bill possible to be passed by this Senate. I bow to the majority, and not without protest. I vote "Aye."

Senator McGowan gave the following explanation of his vote:

I vote "No" because I believe that the amount to be collected by such bill would not be the amount now due for taxes; that the amount to be collected by such bill is less than the amount now justly due the people of the State.

Senator Seawell gave the following explanation of his vote:

I vote "No" on the question of the final passage of Senate Committee Substitute for Assembly Bill No. 10 for the following reasons:

First—Because it is a compromise measure; in its terms, unfair and unjust to the people, and, under its provisions, about two thirds of the taxes actually due from delinquent railroads since the year 1879, exclusive of penalties, costs, interest, and attorneys' fees, is remitted and absolutely released, and because I believe that the Legislature should not—even if its right to do so be unquestioned—remit any portion of an obligation owing by any person or corporation growing out of the exercise by the State of the power of taxation.

Second—That it provides that the taxes levied thereunder shall be collected by local tax collectors instead of being paid to the State Treasurer at the Capitol, as all other taxes due upon the railroads affected by this bill are required to be paid by section three thousand six hundred and sixty-eight of the Political Code; and further, that such legislation is special, and within the constitutional inhibition contained in subdivision ten of section twenty-five of article two of the Constitution.

Third—That it extends the time of payment of certain taxes levied thereunder, which are made to depend upon the happening of certain contingencies involved in actions now pending in the Courts of this State, and therein is contrary to subdivision thirteen of section twenty-five of article four of the Constitution.

Fourth—That if the judgments in the actions for the taxes of the year 1887 should be renewed upon any technicality, however short of reaching to the merits of the case it might be, the provisions of this bill, if enacted into law, would be invoked to prevent the State from asserting its right to a new trial and to a decision and judgment upon the merits of the case.

Fifth—That its provisions for the enforcement of the collection of the taxes levied are indefinite and conflicting.

Sixth—That the case of the People vs. The San Pablo and Tulare Railroad Company is not covered by the reservations as to other pending actions, and this failure to cover the San Pablo case will be taken advantage of by the railroad companies to prevent a determination of that case.

Seventh—That it attempts to regulate the practice of Courts of Justice by suspending certain actions in the Courts of the State, and such attempted regulation is limited and special in its nature and operation, and contrary to subdivision three of section twenty-five, article four of the Constitution.

Eighth—That it levies the tax at the rates to be fixed for the year 1893 instead of at the rates levied for the years for which the delinquency exists, thus enabling these delinquent railroads to profit by their own wrong, in refusing to pay their taxes when the same were due. This will result from placing the values reassessed into the total value of all property upon which the rate of 1893 will be based; thus the very delinquency of this property will be used to lessen the amount of taxes which will be charged upon it, taxes upon all classes of property paid according to the rates of 1885, 1886, and 1887, and I believe that this property should be levied upon at the same rates.

OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, March 5, 1893.

To the Senate and Assembly of California:

At a mass meeting of the citizens of Oakland, held this afternoon, to protest against the passage of the Uniform License Bill, now before your honorable bodies, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we consider the passage of the Uniform License Bill contrary to the very essence of a republican form of government, a shameless effort to thwart the rights of towns, cities, and counties, and, if passed, will indicate a spirit that presents a danger to our civilization, and a menace to our Government.

Resolved, That we thank our Senators and Assemblymen who have thus far opposed the measure, and urge them to maintain their positions, assured that their persistence will be rewarded by all law-abiding citizens.

D. A. FEARN, Chairman.

Mrs. Ada Van Pelt was authorized to convey these resolutions to Sacramento and place them in the hands of our representatives.

D. A. FEARN, Chairman.

Senator Whitehurst presented the following protest, and asked that it be printed in the Journal:

So ordered.

To the Senate and Assembly of California:

At a meeting of the citizens of Gilroy, Santa Clara County, held on Sunday, March 5, 1893, after discussion on the proposed measure to fix a uniform license on liquor vendors, it was, by unanimous vote,

Resolved, That, as the tendency of such a law would be mischievous in effect upon communities where restrictive ordinances are in operation, or in contemplation; and that, as its passage by the Legislature would be an illegitimate interference with the existing right of the people to regulate the traffic, they offer their earnest and solemn protest against the bill, and trust that the Assembly and the Senate will wisely hold sacred the people's right to home rule. With confidence in the intelligence of their legislators, they sign and forward the accompanying forms of protest.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, March 6, 1893.

MR. PRESIDENT: Your sub-committee of the Committee on Commerce and Navigation, consisting of Senators Mahoney, Broderick, and Mitchell, beg leave to report that they visited the city of San Francisco, on March 5th, for the purpose of viewing the State property and the work now in course of construction under the control of the Board of State Harbor Commissioners, and especially the work contemplated under and in pursuance of Senate Bill No. 40 (introduced by Senator Fay), being that portion of the harbor embankment, or seawall, from the westerly terminus of Section B to the westerly line of Van Ness Avenue. Your committee also viewed that portion of the harbor front embracing Islais Creek Channel, the canal opening into South Basin, China, Central, South, India, and Dry Dock Basins, and Channel Street (Senate Bill No. 711, introduced by Senator Mahoney), having in contemplation the extension of the jurisdiction of the Board of State Harbor Commissioners (as far as the ebb and flow of tide water) in and over the land and premises hereinabove last set forth.

It is all-important that the said Board should have control and jurisdiction of the streets fronting on the bay of San Francisco, so as to permit it to make many needed improvements. As it is now, some of the streets and sidewalks are used as lumberyards by individuals, and those parts of the streets which are under the control of the city are in poor condition, while other portions of the city front under the jurisdiction of the Board are in excellent condition.

An additional need for an extension of the south end seawall is shown in the wretched condition of the city front driveway, between Beale and Brannan Streets, where there is constant danger to life, limb, and property through the city's failure to extend Brannan Street, either by filling in or planking. At present, the point of the hill cuts off any roundabout drive, and the only connection between the Mail Dock, and the crowded docks adjacent on the east, is by a planked drive (wide enough for but one team), that is full of holes, which only avoid breaking horses' legs by teamsters laying down loose planks.

In conclusion, we desire to say that the present Board of State Harbor Commissioners, consisting of Messrs. Bassett, Brown, and Alexander, is untiring in its efforts to protect and promote the State's interests, and that many of the improvements now added to such property, as they have jurisdiction over, are due to the efficiency and ability of those officers. We also desire to add our testimony to the conceded care and efficiency of Chief Engineer Howard C. Holmes.

Respectfully submitted.

MAHONEY,
MITCHELL,
BRODERICK,
Committee.

RESOLUTION.

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, March 7, 1893.

COMMUNICATION.

The President announced that he had received the following communication:

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6, 1893.

Hon. J. B. REDDICK, President State Senate, Sacramento, California:

DEAR SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of March 4th, inclosing copy of a resolution adopted by the Senate March 3d, calling upon the California World's Fair Commission for an itemized statement of all expenditures made and paid out of the three hundred thousand ($300,000) dollars appropriated by the twenty-ninth session of the Legislature to pay the expenses of collecting and maintaining an exhibit of the products of California at the World's Columbian Exposition to be held in Chicago in 1893.

You will observe that the balance on hand is $181,339 61, and with the exception of $420 76 the entire amount is deposited in three of the city banks, which have been selected as Treasurers of the Commission. The object of withdrawing this money from the State Treasury is due primarily to the fact that the Commission did not feel free to enter into large contracts, unless it had actual possession of the money. The Controller at one time disputed the validity of the Act and our right to draw upon the treasury, hence our desire to carry on our work unhampered; and making advantageous contracts requires that the money be in our possession.

Furthermore, by an examination of the Act published in our annual report to the Governor, you will see that it gives to the Commission full power and control, and specially exempting us from the supervision of the Board of Examiners.

I now submit to you an estimate of expenditures yet to be made, which practically exhausts the appropriation:

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

By Senator Gesford:

NAPA, CAL., March 6, 1893.

To the honorable the Senate of the State of California:

We, the Official Board of the Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, of Napa, hereby request and pray your honorable body to decline to pass any uniform license bill for the traffic in alcoholic beverages, believing that such a law would be unjust to those sections of the state where either prohibition or high license now prevails, and detrimental to the best interests of the whole State.

Respectfully,

S. E. HOLDEN,
D. A. HAYES,
W. T. COOK,
Committee.

Also:

NAPA, CAL., March 6, 1893.

To the Legislature of the State of California:

The undersigned committee, of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor (numbering seventy members), of the Centenary M. E. Church, of Napa, California, appointed for the purpose, do, for and on behalf of said society and the families it represents, hereby most solemnly protest against the passage of any bill whatever looking to the establishment of a uniform rate of licenses to be charged by counties and municipalities for the sale of liquors and wines therein, and against the passage of any law whatever that will in any way abridge the right of the people, as it now exists, to regulate the sale of such liquors and wines within such counties and municipalities, and against any legislation whatever that will insure to the saloonkeeper any greater or further privileges or protection than he now enjoys.

As the representatives of a great commonwealth it would seem unnecessary to point out to you the reasons why such legislation would prove inimical to the moral growth of our fair State and a menace to the happiness of tens of thousands of her children. We therefore say to you: "Be men, and by your votes show that the State's moral welfare is a first consideration in all your acts as legislators."

O. R. COGHLAN,
S. H. WYCKOFF,
ETTA L. MILLER,
Committee.

PROTESTS.

By Senator Hoyt:

ELMIRA, SOLANO COUNTY, CAL., March 3, 1892.

To the Senate and Assembly of California:

We, the undersigned, earnestly protest against the Uniform License Bill now introduced in the Legislature, and most earnestly entreat you, as our representatives, to use every possible means to defeat the measure.

The principle of local choice is imbedded in our customs. It is just that people be free to choose good and not compelled to espouse evil. Sutter and Lake Counties, and fifty towns, refuse license altogether, and we urge their right to do so, and we desire that that right be continued.

WM. F. DILLAS, MARY DILLAS, and forty-two others.

By Senator Hart (by request):

ELK GROVE, SACRAMENTO COUNTY, February 27, 1893.

ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION No. 4.

Relating to the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

WHEREAS, Congress, by laws providing for free and unlimited coinage of silver, successfully maintained the value of the silver dollar upon a parity with gold from the beginning of our Government until eighteen hundred and seventy-three; and whereas, the silver coined at the legal ratio of sixteen to one was, at the time of the demonetization of silver coinage in eighteen hundred and seventy-three, equal to a gold dollar in value; and whereas, the said demonetization of silver was brought about by secret agency, and without the knowledge of the great majority of the members of Congress; and whereas, the direct purpose of said demonetization of silver was to contract the currency and to enrich the money-lending classes of the world at the expense of the producing classes, by the lowering of prices of products and the maintaining of high rates of interest; and whereas, the effect of such demonetization of silver has been such as to keep rates of interest high, and to take much more of human produce to pay principal and interest upon indebtedness, thereby entailing enormously increased and unjust burdens upon producers for the benefit of money lenders; and whereas, the demonetization of silver coinage, by denying to silver bullion one of its former uses, has thrown it upon the market for mechanical uses only, thereby reducing the value of silver bullion so that English speculators in Indian produce can bring the products of India, especially wheat and cotton, into competition with such American products at from thirty to forty per cent cheaper than could be done otherwise; and whereas, the hundreds of millions of dollars lost annually by the producers of the United States, by reason of the demonetization of silver and the high rates of interest consequently prevailing, has resulted in such a vast mortgaged indebtedness as threatens the destruction of the producing and laboring interest, unless steps are taken to relieve the contraction of the currency and the evil hereinbefore recited; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate concurring. That the Senators and Representatives in Congress from this State are hereby requested to use their utmost endeavors, by every proper means, to obtain at the earliest day possible the passage of an Act of Congress for the free and unlimited coinage of silver, at the legal ratio of sixteen to one; and be it

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to transmit to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress a copy of this resolution.

The roll was called.

NOES—Messrs. Bailey, Biggy, Broderick, Campbell, Carpenter, Denison, Dunn, Earl, Flint, Ford, Gesford, Goucher, Harp, Hart, Hoyt, Maher, Mahoney, Mitchell, Orr, Ragsdale, Seymour, Shippee, Simpson, Streeter, Voorheis, and Williams—27.

The question then being on the adoption of Substitute for Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 14.

The roll was called, and the Senate refused to adopt Substitute for Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 14 by the following vote:

EXPLANATIONS.

When Senator Burke's name was called, he gave the following as an explanation of his vote, and asked that it be printed in the Journal:

While I still adhere to the opinion expressed in the minority report made to this Senate on Substitute for Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 8, against making the "California Distance Tariff" a part of the Constitution, nevertheless, as I am in favor of repealing sections twenty-two and twenty-three of article twelve of the Constitution, and as the Assembly has passed this proposed amendment, and the Senate refuses to segregate the two propositions therein contained, I am willing to submit the same to a vote of the people for final determination.

When Senator McGowan's name was called, he presented the following as an explanation of his vote, and asked that it be printed in the Journal:

I vote "no," because I am firmly convinced, from the evidence introduced before the committee, that if this amendment is either proposed or adopted, it would work irreparable injury and damage to the railroads of the counties which I have the honor to represent. At the present juncture of commercial affairs it would be highly injurious to the efforts about to be made to connect the county in which I live with the railroad system of the State; although, if separately submitted, I am in favor of abolishing the present system of Railroad Commission.

When Senator Ford's name was called, he gave the following as an explanation for casting his vote in the negative, and asked that the same be printed in the Journal:

I vote "no," for the reason that I believe that the proposed amendment, if adopted, would postpone for an indefinite period the building of a competing railroad connecting San Francisco harbor with the trunk lines of the Eastern States, and for the further reason that it would seriously cripple the small roads in my district.

RECESS.

The hour of twelve o'clock M. having arrived, the President declared a recess until one o'clock and thirty minutes P. M.

REASSEMBLED.

At one o'clock and thirty minutes P. M. the Senate reassembled.

Quorum present.

EXPLANATION.

Senator Seawell asked that the following explanation be read and printed in the Journal.

So ordered.

I was unexpectedly called out by J. M. Standley, of my county, at the time of the vote on Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 14. Inasmuch as the Senate refused to adopt the Shanahan resolution proposed by me as a substitute, had I been present and voted, I should have voted "aye" on the proposed resolution.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Senator Seawell was granted a leave of absence until three o'clock and thirty minutes P. M.

RESOLUTION.

By Senator Ford:

WHEREAS, The Government of the United States has recently set apart for Government reservation, in the State of California, several millions of acres of land, which include certain sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections of land, amounting to some hundreds of thousands of acres, which would otherwise belong to the State of California, to be sold for school purposes; and whereas, the said Acts of reservation entitle the Surveyor-General of the State of California to select other Government land, in lieu of the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections included in said reservations; and whereas, a large number of applications have been presented to the Surveyor-General of the State for filing, and are now in his possession, and if accepted, by him will take precedence according to date thereof; and whereas, many of these applications may be for identical tracts of Government land, thus causing unnecessary annoyance and expense to intending purchasers; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That a committee of three be appointed by the President of the Senate, which committee is hereby directed to make a complete list of all applications now in the possession of the Surveyor-General of the State of California, showing in detail the date of presentation, the name and address of the applicant, together with a description of the tract or tracts sought to be purchased, and whether the application is by individual or by attorney, and if by attorney the name and address of same; and it is further

Resolved, That the findings of the committee and the information thus obtained shall be printed and given general circulation and publicity; and that said committee shall employ a competent clerk to assist them and report to the Senate at as early a day as practicable.

The said committee of reference shall be allowed the sum of three dollars per day for each day's service so rendered, and the sum of ten cents per mile for every mile necessarily traveled by them in the discharge of such duties, which allowances shall be paid by the claimant and the company in equal proportions."

COMMUNICATION.

The following communication was received, and, on motion of Senator Mathews, the same was ordered printed in the Journal:

A. G. L. No. 9,086. ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S OFFICE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 13, 1893.

To the honorable Senate of the State of California:

On the 10th instant your honorable body adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Attorney-General and Controller of the State of California are hereby requested to immediately furnish to the Senate copies of contracts made for the collection of delinquent taxes belonging to the State, by which the collector is allowed fifteen per cent upon the amount collected, in addition to the costs and penalties prescribed by statute, and that said Attorney-General and Controller also furnish the Senate with the following information:

"1. How many such contracts have been made, when made, and with whom made.

"2. How much money has been paid said persons with whom said contracts were made as percentage, costs, and penalties, including the $3 per notice for serving notices, and including the percentage and penalties paid by the counties for which said persons are appointed.

"3. By what authority of law said Attorney-General and Controller have assumed to make such contracts."

In reply to the first part of the resolution, we respectfully deny that we have at any time made any contract with any person or persons in any of the counties of this State for the collection of delinquent taxes, or that any person or persons have, by any authority given by us, or to our knowledge, collected fifteen or any per cent in addition to the costs and penalties prescribed by statute; but we have entered into contracts with certain persons in certain counties of the State, for the purpose of discovering from the records of the various counties the amount of property sold to the State for delinquent taxes from the year 1870 to the present time, and to cause to be redeemed, or cause the payment of all moneys necessary to be paid to redeem, all property sold to the State for taxes.

In obedience to your said resolution, we have the honor to transmit herewith a copy of the contracts, showing the terms thereof, entered into for the purpose of causing the redemption of property sold to the State for delinquent taxes in certain counties of the State, as follows:

December 15, 1891, with R. F. House for the county of Los Angeles.
 January 20, 1892, with W. R. Porter for the county of San Bernardino.
 March 1, 1892, with L. A. Wright for the county of San Diego
 July 1, 1892, with Nowlin & Fassett for the City and County of San Francisco.
 July 28, 1892, with W. D. Bresee for the county of Fresno.
 August 1, 1892, with W. M. R. Parker for the county of Monterey.
 October 17, 1892, with J. W. Davis for the county of Tulare.
 December 1, 1892, with E. E. Cottle for the county of Santa Clara.

We also transmit herewith a statement showing in detail the amount of money that has been paid by the State to said persons with whom said contracts were made, up to the date of this communication. This statement shows that there has been paid as follows:

|------------------------------|------------|
| To R. F. House..... | $1,047 84 |
| To W. D. Bresee..... | 203 13 |
| To W. R. Porter..... | 53 73 |
| To L. A. Wright..... | 513 35 |
| To W. M. R. Parker..... | 17 73 |
| Making a grand total of..... | $1,835 78 |

To the others nothing has yet been paid.

The above amounts were allowed by the State Board of Examiners and paid to these persons, respectively, for their services to the State in causing the redemption of property sold to the State for taxes, being a percentage on the State's portion only.

The amount paid by the counties to these agents is unknown to us, and this information, as well as the amount collected for the service of notices, the expense for serving which is provided for by Section 3785 of the Political Code, must be obtained from the Boards of Supervisors and Auditors of the various counties with whom these same gentlemen have entered into contracts.

Under Section 17 of the Political Code the word "person" includes the masculine, feminine, and neuter gender, and it is held by the Supreme Court of the State of California, in the case of People vs. City of Oakland, 92 Cal., op. 614, that "No doubt a municipal corporation is a person in the same sense in which the word is used in this section."

Under the provisions of said Section 3785, no person purchasing property at a tax sale is entitled to receive a deed until notice is given of the amount required to be paid for the redemption of the property. We have interpreted the law to mean, and so has the Superior Court of San Diego County, that it is the duty of the State to cause notices to be served in the same manner as by a private purchaser before the owner is obliged to redeem and before the State can obtain a deed. We have held and still hold that when the State is a purchaser of property at tax sale it is entitled to use all of the ordinary remedies permitted and accorded by law to private purchasers.

Without quoting the law, we desire to call the attention of your honorable body to Section 433 of the Political Code, pertaining to the duties of the Controller, especially the first and sixteenth subdivisions of said section; to Section 470 of the Political Code, pertaining to the powers of the Attorney-General, and to Section 3880 of said Code, applying to both the State Controller and Attorney-General. We contend that the provisions of these sections authorize the execution of the contracts with said persons.

We think it well for you to understand the condition of the tax sales to the State at the time of our taking office. We discovered that a large amount of property in the various counties of the State had been sold to the State for taxes, which, under the provisions of Section 3813 of the Political Code, is practically withdrawn from taxation, increasing the burden of taxation upon all who pay taxes. It was then and still is impossible to make an exact estimate of the number of sales made to the State, and the amount of taxes due upon such sales; but in Los Angeles County alone the sales to the State were something like 14,000 in number, and the amount due between $300,000 and $400,000; in San Diego County the sales were about 21,000 in number, and the amount of taxes about $225,000, while in the City and County of San Francisco the sales to the State were over 24,000 in number, amounting to several hundred thousand dollars in taxes. We are unable even to estimate the approximate amount in assessed value of lands sold to the State in all the counties, but think it amounts to over $20,000,000, nearly equal to one half of the assessed value of all the railroads in the State.

These sales to the State had the effect of withdrawing the property from assessment and the payment of taxes. We considered this unjust to those who paid taxes, for it was necessary for them to carry the large amount of property sold to the State, and we determined, in our official capacity, deeming the law sufficient to warrant us in so doing, to enter into the contracts specified, constituting the persons mentioned, not agents and collectors of delinquent taxes, but agents of the State to serve notices to redeem, informing the persons whose lands had been sold to the State for taxes, in many instances years ago, to redeem the property within a reasonable time. The owners of property sold to the State should not find fault with regard to the expense of serving notices, for had their property been purchased by private individuals they would be required to pay double the penalty exacted by the State.

Many of these sales were made more than ten years ago, when the lands were assessed at a nominal sum. Upon being redeemed the redemption is made on the last assessed valuation, when, as a matter of fact, they have in many cases increased in value ten fold, they thus evading the payment of taxes on the enhanced value.

Under the provisions of Section 470 of the Political Code, it is made a part of the duty of the Attorney-General to give opinions to the State officers, when called upon, as to their powers and duties, and we understand the law to be that such opinions have the effect of a judgment of Court until overruled by a higher authority; and it was the opinion of the Attorney-General at the time these contracts were signed, and still is his opinion, that the Controller had power to enter into such contracts, and that the Controller and Attorney-General had authority to sign the contracts, upon the condition that the compensation of the parties should be ratified, confirmed, and allowed by the State Board of Examiners when the bills were presented.

In all sales to the State where redemption has been made the State obtains 25 per cent penalty upon the State's portion of the taxes, and we consider it no more than just that the parties serving the notices should be entitled to a compensation of 15 per cent, or three fifths of the penalty charged, subject to the approval of the State Board of Examiners.

We cannot see why persons whose lands have been sold to the State, and who have not redeemed in years gone by (the sales extending from 1873-4 to 1892), should complain about the expense of the service of notices, for they had ample time to redeem the property before we took office. It seems to have been the custom in districts which suffered by reason of land booms to allow property to be sold to the State for taxes and have it withdrawn, practically, from taxation, and awaiting the return of another boom to advance the value of the property, so that it could be sold to good advantage, the owners in that way escaping their just proportion of taxation.

We also desire to call the attention of your honorable body to the fact that in every case, except in the City and County of San Francisco, the Board of Supervisors of the respective counties mentioned requested the appointment of the persons who have been appointed by us, and the Boards of Supervisors appointed the same persons, and entered into similar contracts for the portion of the taxes due the counties. It may be true that the persons appointed belong to the same political party, and it may be true, and is true, that they were satisfactory to us. It can well be supposed that we would, in our official capacity, deal with persons in whom we had confidence, politically and otherwise.

We contend that the revenue laws now in existence are sufficient to enforce the collection and payment into the State and County Treasuries of the taxes levied against individuals and corporations, and, so far as we are concerned, we propose in the future, as we have in the past, to see that the laws are properly enforced, and that the taxes on every piece of property in this State, on which taxes are levied, shall be paid, and where sale has been made to the State, that the property must be redeemed within a reasonable time or deeds executed to the State.

Had your honorable body paid careful attention to the report of the State Controller for the forty-second and forty-third fiscal years, page thirty-two of said report, under the heading of "Redemption of Property Sold to the State for Delinquent Taxes," an answer would have been found in relation to the subject-matter of your resolution.

The sales of property to the State for taxes cover a period commencing in 1873 and extending down to date. Much of this property was sold under a very low rate of assessment, and all taxes upon such property, since such sales, have been figured upon the assessed value at the time of sale, which the law requires, and such property has not for years paid its just proportion of taxes. The redemption again brings the property upon the assessment roll at the present value, giving a large increased assessed value, and lowering the rate of taxation on other property.

In further reply to the third subdivision of your resolution, we desire to report that we have assumed nothing, but have obeyed the law and have carried out the authority the law has vested in us.

If any hardship has resulted from the enforcement of the redemption of the lands sold to the State for taxes, we submit that the persons who are finding fault with the condition of affairs could have evaded all hardship and liability had they paid their taxes as they should have done before sale took place. We see no reason why persons and corporations whose lands have been sold to the State for taxes should be shielded by political or other influence from bearing their just proportion of taxation.

To show the good results derived from the appointment of these agents, the following facts and figures are submitted for your consideration:

From April 1879 to January, 1891 (when we assumed office), a period of twelve years, there were filed certificates of redemption aggregating 5,617. From January 1, 1891, to March 11, 1893, there have been filed certificates of redemption aggregating 6,266.

Particular attention is called to the fact that since the appointment of agents on behalf of the State and counties redemptions are rapidly increasing. During the first eight months of the forty-fourth fiscal year redemption certificates aggregating 3,200 in number have been filed.

Respectfully submitted,

E. P. COLGAN,
State Controller.
WM. H. HART,
Attorney-General.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE.

ON ENROLLED AND ENGROSSED BILLS.

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, March 13, 1893.

MR. PRESIDENT: Your Committee on Enrolled and Engrossed Bills beg leave to report that the following Senate Bill has been correctly reengrossed: Senate Bill No. 368—An Act to regulate the collection and disposition of all garbage, offal, ashes, and other refuse matter in towns, cities, and cities and counties having over one hundred thousand inhabitants.

RAGSDALE, Chairman.

Senator Voorheis, from the Committee on Elections, presented the following report, and asked that it be printed in the Journal.

So ordered.

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, March 11, 1893.

MR. PRESIDENT: Your Committee on Elections beg leave to report that the committee have had under consideration and inspection for some time the records and tally sheets used at a trial of a machine invented by H. H. Niebur, of Ferndale, California, the system being denominated the "Niebur System." We are necessarily compelled to judge of the merits of the machine by the results now before us.

The machine is an invention of the gentleman above named, and its practical design is to count votes under our present system of voting. The ticket is introduced into the machine, the face of the ticket, after being duly marked, being placed upon a regular tally sheet. A pressure is then made upon the ticket, and the "marks" on the ticket are transferred to the tally sheet, opposite the names of the persons voted for upon the ticket. The ticket is then run through the machine. The result of the action is that the tally sheet is being made up and the votes counted while the voting is proceeding. After the last vote is run through the machine the result is known. The voter places the ticket in position, and the election officers work the machines to cause the ticket to be run through and the sheets impressed during the process. Contrivances are adopted so that the election officers cannot ascertain where the impression is being made while the ticket is going through the machine, and the secrecy of the ballot is preserved.

The very favorable results, as shown by the sheets herewith submitted, impresses us with the conviction that the system is possessed of merit; that, if used, it would greatly facilitate the counting of the votes, and that it would afford a safe mode to the electors of this State that would preclude by its mechanical precision every effort to count the votes fraudulently. We commend the system to the earnest investigation of every citizen interested in the purity of the ballot, and respectfully submit to the Legislature that the manifest merits of the system commend it most highly for adoption in the future.

VOORHEIS, Chairman.

And there is hereby levied for State purposes the same rates of taxation for each of such respective years as were heretofore levied upon such property for each of said years for said State purposes."

Also: By striking out of the title the figures "1882," and insert in lieu thereof "1879."

SPECIAL REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY.

The Judiciary Committee presented the following report, relative to statement of Senator Hart, in regard to the vote whereby Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 23 was adopted:

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, March 13, 1893.

MR. PRESIDENT: Your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred the proposed statement of Senator Hart, relative to the vote whereby Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 23 was adopted, have had the same under consideration, and hereby respectfully report as follows:

We beg leave to state that Senator Hart, during the entire consideration of said amendment, was opposed to the same, and earnestly and ably endeavored to defeat the same, and did all that it was possible for him to do for his constituents in the premises.

We recommend that Senator Hart be permitted to have the following personal statement entered in the Journal:

PERSONAL STATEMENT OF SENATOR HART.

"When the roll of the Senate was called on last Saturday evening on the passage of Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 23, and my name was reached, I voted 'no.' Upon the completion of the roll call, and before the announcement of the vote, I ascertained that twenty-seven votes had been cast in favor of said amendment. Thereupon I changed my vote from 'no' to 'aye' for the purpose of giving notice, at the proper time, of a motion to reconsider the vote whereby said Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 23 was adopted. The President of the Senate thereupon announced the vote as twenty-eight ayes and seven noes. Upon the announcement of the vote, I at once attempted to gain the recognition of the Chair, for the purpose of carrying out my intention of giving notice of a motion to reconsider, but a motion to adjourn was put and carried before I could gain such recognition, and I was thus prevented from giving such notice of motion to reconsider."

Respectfully submitted.

McGOWAN, Chairman.
